Un Amour De Descartes:

Love, Desire and Transcendence in French Literature Paul Gifford, 2016-12-05 European literature and theory of the twentieth century have been intensely preoccupied with questions of Desire whereas love has increasingly represented a fractured and strange if not actually suspect proposal this is a prime symptom of an age of deep cultural mutation and uncertainty Paul Gifford's book allows this considerable contemporary phenomenon to be observed steadily and whole with strategic understanding of its origins nature and meaning Gifford paints a clear and coherent picture of the evolution of erotic ideas and their imaginary and formal expressions in modern French writing He first retraces the formative matrix of French tradition by engaging with five classic sources Plato's Symposium the Song of Songs the myth of Genesis the tension between Greek Eros and Christian Agape and the repercussions of Nietzsche's declaration of the death of God Modern variations on these perennial problematics are then pursued in ten chapters devoted to Proust Valéry Claudel Breton Bataille Duras Barthes Irigaray Emmanuel Kristeva Literary and theoretical perspectives are perfectly blended in his study of these attempts at deciphering Eros The book will appeal not only to students of French literature but to all those interested in the cultural upheavals of the twentieth century

Descartes's Fictions Emma Gilby, 2019-03-15 Descartes's Fictions traces common movements in early modern philosophy and literary method Emma Gilby reassesses the significance of Descartes's writing by bringing his philosophical output into contact with the literary treatises exempla and debates of his age She argues that humanist theorizing about poetics represents a vital intellectual context for Descartes's work She offers readings of the controversies to which this poetic theory gives rise with particular reference to the genre of tragicomedy questions of verisimilitude or plausibility and the figures of Guez de Balzac and Pierre Corneille Drawing on what Descartes says about and to his many contemporaries and correspondents embedded in the early modern republic of letters this volume shows that poetics provides a repository of themes and images to which he returns repeatedly fortune method error providence passion and imagination for instance Like the poets and theorists of his age Descartes is also drawn to the forms of attention that people may bring to his work This interest finds expression in the mature Cartesian metaphysics of the Meditations as well as later in the moral philosophy of his correspondence with Elisabeth of Bohemia or the Passions of the Soul This volume thus bridges the gap between Cartesian criticism and late humanist literary culture in France

Descartes's Theory of Action Anne Davenport, 2006-07-01 This volume has a single goal to argue that Descartes's most fundamental discovery is not the epistemological subject but rather the underlying free agent without whom no epistemological subject is possible This fresh interpretation of the Cartesian cogito is defended through a close reading of Descartes's masterpiece the Meditations Special attention is paid to the historical roots of Descartes's interest in free agency particularly his close ties to the French School of spirituality Three aspects of Descartes's personal evolution are considered his aesthetic evolution from Baroque concealment to Classicism his political evolution from feudal nostalgia to modern secularism and his spiritual evolution from Stoic wisdom to active engagement in the world through the scientific project

Petite philosophie de l'Amour, de Platon à Comte-Sponville Catherine Merrien, 2019-11-28 La collection Petite philosophie des grandes idées retrace travers la présentation d'une dizaine de penseurs majeurs le destin d'un concept clé Ainsi ce livre raconte l'histoire de l'idée d'amour de l'Antiquité nos jours chaque chapitre est consacré à la pensée d'un philosophe dont l'auteur dialogue les lignes de force Illustré de citations de référence et d'exemples de la vie quotidienne ce guide constitue une approche vivante et efficace de l'histoire de la pensée philosophique Préface d'André Comte-Sponville

Difficult Atheism Christopher Watkin, 2013-03-31 Drawing primarily on the work of Alain Badiou and Jean-Luc Nancy plus Quentin Meillassoux and Slavoj Žižek Watkin explores the theme of atheism through the ideas of the death of God and nihilism in contemporary French philosophy

How the French Think Sudhir Hazareesingh, 2015-09-22 An award-winning historian presents an absorbing account of the French mind shedding light on France's famous tradition of intellectual life Why are the French such an exceptional nation Why do they think they are so exceptional The French take pride in the fact that their history and culture have decisively shaped the values and ideals of the modern world French ideas are no less distinct in their form while French thought is abstract stylish and often opaque it has always been bold and creative and driven by the relentless pursuit of innovation In How the French Think the internationally renowned historian Sudhir Hazareesingh tells the epic and tumultuous story of French intellectual thought from Descartes Rousseau and Auguste Comte to Sartre Claude L. Strauss and Derrida He shows how French thinking has shaped fundamental Western ideas about freedom rationality and justice and how the French mind-set is intimately connected to their own way of life in particular to the French tendency towards individualism their passion for nature their celebration of their historical heritage and their fascination with death Hazareesingh explores the French veneration of dissent and skepticism from Voltaire to the Dreyfus Affair and beyond the obsession with the protection of French language and culture the rhetorical flair embodied by the philosophes which today's intellectuals still try to recapture the astonishing influence of French postmodern thinkers including Foucault and Barthes on postwar American education and life and also the growing French anxiety about a globalized world order under American hegemony How the French Think sweeps aside generalizations and easy stereotypes to offer an incisive and revealing exploration of the French intellectual tradition Steeped in a colorful range of sources and written with warmth and humor this book will appeal to all lovers of France and of European culture The Expression of the Passions Jennifer Montagu, Charles Le Brun, 1994-01-01 In 1688 Charles Le Brun a French academician delivered a lecture on expression that was so popular it was published in sixty three separate editions and influenced all discussion of the subject throughout Europe for over a century This book reconstructs and translates the text of the lecture badly garbled in all previous versions explores the context in which it was conceived delivered received and finally rejected and reproduces the images that accompanied the lecture Memoires Concernant Christine Reine de Suede, Johan Arckenholtz, 1760

Revue des deux mondes ,1893 Returning to Irigaray Maria Cimitile ,Elaine P. Miller, 2006-11-06 Luce Irigaray is one of the most influential philosophers and theorists in the field of feminist thought and her work is considered both revolutionary and controversial This volume offers the first critical assessment of the relation of her early critical and poetic writings to her later political and practical philosophy Contributors examine how the question of sexual difference has unfolded in a wealth of different directions in Irigaray s later work focusing on the areas of nature and technology social and political theory and praxis ethics psychoanalysis and phenomenology They also address whether there has been a radical conceptual turn in Irigaray s thought by exploring the idea of a turn as a return to themes that have concerned her all along The essays contend that Irigaray s writings should be read criticized or promoted within the context of her overall philosophical project The Cartesian Mind Jorge Secada, Travis Tanner, Cecilia Wee, 2025-09-03 Descartes is widely acknowledged as a central figure in the origins of modernity The nature of his thought and of the role it played is however a matter of considerable dispute among experts The Cartesian Mind is a significant contribution to this debate It covers the full extent of his work not only placing it in its historical context but also exploring its reception legacy and contemporary significance Comprising over 40 chapters by an international team of distinguished scholars the collection is divided into 3 parts Historical Context Philosophical Themes Reception and Influence Within these parts key topics are addressed including Descartes s life and works Platonism Scholasticism Stoicism skepticism atomism meditation method the self God will and freedom mind and body biology and medicine causation mathematics the natural sciences philosophy of science ethics and the origins of idealism Descartes s reception and legacy within science and philosophy from the seventeenth century to our days including current analytic and continental traditions as well as within the broader contemporary culture also receive sustained attention Descartes s work is central to all areas of philosophy including epistemology metaphysics philosophy of mind philosophy of science and ethics As such The Cartesian Mind is essential reading and an indispensable tool for all students and researchers in the discipline Towards an Equality of the Sexes in Early Modern France Derval Conroy, 2021-02-24 This volume sets out to examine the ways in which an equality between the sexes is constructed conceptualised imagined or realised in early modern France a period and a country which produced some of the earliest theorisations on equality In so doing it aims to contribute towards the development of the history of equality as an intellectual category within the history of political thought and to situate the woman question within that history The eleven chapters in the volume span the fields of political theory philosophy literature history and history of ideas bringing together literary scholars historians philosophers and scholars of political thought and examining an extensive range of primary sources Whilst most of the chapters focus on the conceptualisation of a moral metaphysical or intellectual equality between the sexes space is also given to concrete examples of a de facto gender equality in operation The volume is aimed at scholars and graduate students of political thought history of philosophy women s history and gender studies alike It aims to throw light on the history of Western ideas of equality and difference questions which continue to preoccupy cultural historians philosophers political theorists and feminist critics

Quaestio ,2004      Biographie Universelle, Ancienne Et Moderne ,1843      Racine's Roman Tragedies ,2022-01-17 In two of his most famous plays Britannicus and B r nice Racine depicts the tragedies of characters trapped by the ideals desires and cruelties of ancient Rome This international collection of essays deploys cutting edge research to illuminate the plays and their contexts For Racine Rome is more than a location it is a set of values and traditions a space of opportunity and oppression The contributors to this volume examine Racine s stagecraft his exploration of time and space sound and silence and the ways in which he develops his own distinctive understanding of tragedy The reception of his plays by contemporaries and subsequent generations also features In Racine s hands Rome becomes a state of mind haunted by both past and future This book s dedicatee Richard Parish passed away on January 1st 2022 just before publication We would like to dedicate this collection of essays to his memory
