Un Jour Mon Prince Viendra:

Un jour mon Prince viendra... d'Internet ? Salomé Salta Marques, 2010 Un jour mon Prince... Valérie Roman, 2019-08-30T00:00:00Z Un jour mon Prince Le prince charmant celui qui nous est conté dans notre enfance On en rêve on l'attend toujours et encore puis on finit par le trouver Ces quatre récits de femmes vous mènent sur le chemin que chacune a emprunté pour trouver son prince Prince charmant bas les masques , French-speaking Women Documentarians Janis L. Pallister, Ruth A. Hottell, 2005 French Speaking Women Documentarians is a guide for teachers of French and others interested in selecting and researching the work of female French speaking documentarians Represented in this book are filmmakers from Canada various African nations the Antilles Lebanon Switzerland Belgium and several other countries with emphasis on Agnès Varda of France arguably the greatest female documentarian of all The book includes information on each filmmaker classified by country of origin and lists and describes her works giving factual information such as date duration credits and synopses and pointing out critical treatments both in English and in French of her most important films Shorts docudramas and works of animation are also discussed as they too reflect history and culture This guide will lead to the viewing of films that shed understanding on the culture being portrayed and to a greater appreciation of the contribution of French speaking women filmmakers to this important if not always objective film genre Un jour mon prince viendra... ou pas ! Vanessa Furchert, 2023-11-09 Rumour and Radiation Paul Hegarty, 2015-01-01 This is a book about video art and about sound art The thesis is that sound first entered the gallery via the video art of the 1960s and in so doing created an unexpected noise The early part of the book looks at this formative period and the key figures within it then jumps to the mid 1990s when video art has become such a major part of contemporary art production it no longer seems an autonomous form Paul Hegarty considers the work of a range of artists including Steve McQueen Christian Marclay Ryan Trecartin and Jane and Louise Wilson proposing different theories according to the particular strategy of the artist under discussion Connecting them all are the twinned ideas of intermedia and synaesthesia Hegarty offers close readings of video works as influenced by their sound while also considering the institutional and material contexts Applying contemporary sound theory to the world of video art Paul Hegarty offers an entirely fresh perspective on the interactions between sound sound art and the visual The Straight Mind Monique Wittig, 1992-02-03 These political philosophical and literary essays mark the first collection of theoretical writing from the acclaimed novelist and French feminist writer Monique Wittig Among the most provocative and compelling feminist political visions since The Second Sex These essays represent the radical extension of de Beauvoir's theory its unexpected lesbian future Wittig's theoretical insights are both precise and far reaching and her theoretical style is bold incisive even shattering Judith Butler Johns Hopkins University The Theatre of Naturalism Philip Beitchman, 2011 The impact of naturalism a literary approach invented by Zola and especially significant in the field of the novel through his American disciples Crane Norris and Dreiser is well acknowledged and recognized Not so well recognized but equally important is naturalistic theatre this was a style that also originated with Zola but its progeny was more international and its significance more radical and insurrectionary than in the less spectacular genre of fiction The Theatre of Naturalism Disappearing Act establishes the incipiently revolutionary context between the Paris Communist Commune crushed in 1871 and the successful Bolshevik insurrection of October 1917 more or less foregrounded or in the background of works by Zola Strindberg Ibsen Hauptmann Synge Shaw and Tolstoy focused especially on issues of class struggle and class war as well as the prospects and possibilities of challenging the hegemony of the ruling orders Especially in regard to later theatre for instance the hypernaturalism of The Brig Living Theatre of Kenneth Brown and of plays by Arnold Wesker and David Storey Philip Beitchman frequently invokes themes culled from recent French theory particularly Derrida's deconstruction and Baudrillard's ideas about simulation The Theatre of Naturalism will open up new perspectives for anyone interested in theory or theatre whether scholars or the wider theatre loving or performing public On Monique Wittig Namascar Shaktini, 2005 Monique Wittig who died in January 2003 was a leading French feminist social theorist prose poet and novelist and an activist who helped start the lesbian and women's liberation movements in France This collection of essays by Wittig and on her work is the first sustained examination in English of her broad ranging political literary and theoretical viewpoints On Monique Wittig contains twelve essays representing French Francophone and U S critics including three previously unpublished pieces by Wittig herself Among the essays is Diane Griffin Crowder's discussion of the U S feminist movement Linda Zerilli's consideration of gender and will and Teresa de Lauretis's examination of the development of lesbian theory Together these essays situate Wittig's work in terms of the cultural contexts of its production and reception This volume also contains the first authenticated chronology of Wittig's life and features the first translation of For a Movement of Women's Liberation which Wittig published with other militantes in May 1970 As the first book to appear on Wittig following her death On Monique Wittig is an indispensable tool for feminist scholars Le Deuxième Sexe Simone de Beauvoir, 1989 The classic manifesto of the liberated woman this book explores every facet of a woman's life

Resistance, Flight, Creation Dorothea Olkowski, 2000 Thirteen women at the forefront of philosophy locate new feminist points of view within the discipline by rigorously engaging works of contemporary French philosophy In so doing they both transform the standard practices of the field and carve out new territory These writers amplify the work of feminist philosophers such as Simone de Beauvoir Luce Irigaray and Sarah Kofman in ways that are both stylistically and substantively creative They also appropriate for radical feminist use the works of male philosophers such as Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze Maurice Merleau-Ponty and Jean-Paul Sartre The essays illustrate the manner in which feminist philosophers bypass traditional methodology in favor of a disciplinary freedom characterized by fluid methodologies best exemplified in Beauvoir's work and by the employment of imaginative forms including the autobiographical and the poetic The modes of inquiry used here range variously from psychoanalysis and existentialism to deconstruction post structuralism and newly resurgent phenomenology This volume also contains a comprehensive bibliography of feminist thinkers who are enacting French philosophy in English German and French
