Interdisciplinary Explorations of Postmortem Interaction Estella Weiss-Krejci,Sebastian Becker,Philip Schwyzer,2022-06-23 In the present as in the past the dead have been deployed to promote visions of identity as well as ostensibly wider human values Through a series of case studies from ancient Egypt through prehistoric historic and present day Europe this book discusses what is constant and what is locally and historically specific in our ways of interacting with the remains of the dead their objects and monuments Postmortem interaction encompasses not only funerary rituals and intergenerational engagement with forebears but also concerns encounters with the dead who died centuries and millennia ago Drawing from a variety of disciplines such as archaeology bioarchaeology literary studies ancient Egyptian philology and sociocultural anthropology this volume provides an interdisciplinary account of the ways in which the dead are able to transcend temporal distances and engender social relationships Until quite recently literary sciences and archaeology were generally regarded as incommensurable in their aims methodologies and source material Although archaeologists and literary critics have been increasingly willing to borrow concepts and terminology from the other discipline this book is one examples of a genuinely collaborative endeavor This is an open access book

Dictionnaire anglais-français et français-anglais ,1881 The Fragmentation of the Proper Name and the Crisis of Degree Radhouan Ben Amara,2004 This book is a rich interpretation of a rich text providing a twenty first century reading of a timeless masterpiece and in so doing it points to the relationship of death and desire as a playing both with body and language The book confronts readers with the ineluctable patterns which language and time inscribe within the open closed Shakespearean space Degree division and diversity as the focal points Emphasis upon the corporeality of the human body links this study s textual interpretation with the corpus of the literary canon itself seen as a body divided by performance and differed by reading It prevails over the damaging engagement with the deconstructed text and dominates the conflictual tendencies of the reconstructed drama
