The Politics of Evaluation in International Organizations Vytautas Jankauskas, Steffen Eckhard, 2023 This book explores the internal machinery of evaluation systems in international organizations and challenges the conventional understanding of evaluation as a value free activity The authors propose new ways of better reconciling evaluation politics with the need to gather reliable evidence to improve the functioning of the United Nations promoting these rights appear not only to preserve our liberty but to guarantee society remains just Yet considering how much violence and inequality results from these legal mandates Jacqueline Stevens asks whether we might be making the wrong assumptions Would a world without such laws be more just Arguing that the core laws of the nation state are more about a fear of death than a desire for freedom Jacqueline Stevens imagines a world in which birthright citizenship family inheritance state sanctioned marriage and private land ownership are eliminated Would chaos be the result Drawing on political theory and history and incorporating contemporary social and economic data she brilliantly critiques our sentimental attachments to birthright citizenship inheritance and marriage and highlights their harmful outcomes including war global apartheid destitution family misery and environmental damage It might be hard to imagine countries without the rules of membership and ownership that have come to define them but as Stevens shows conjuring new ways of reconciling our laws with the condition of mortality reveals the flaws of our present institutions and inspires hope for moving beyond them
