From the Usher's Desk to the Tabernacle Pulpit Robert Shindler, 1897 Black Church Studies Stacey M.

Floyd-Thomas, 2007 Religious Studies Over the last thirty years African American voices and perspectives have become essential to the study of the various theological disciplines Writing out of their particular position in the North American context African American thinkers have contributed significantly to biblical studies theology church history ethics sociology of religion homiletics pastoral care and a number of other fields Frequently the work of these African American scholars is brought together in the seminary curriculum under the rubric of the black church studies class Drawing on these several disciplines the black church studies class seeks to give an account of the broad meaning of Christian faith in the African American experience Up to now however there has not been a single comprehensive textbook designed to meet the needs of students and instructors in these classes Black Church Studies An Introduction will meet that need Drawing on the work of specialists in several fields it introduces all of the core theological disciplines from an African American standpoint from African American biblical interpretation to womanist theology and and ethics to sociological understandings of the life of African American churches It will become an indispensable resource for all those preparing to serve in African American congregations or to understand African American contributions to the study of Christian faith Looks at the diverse definitions and functions of the Black Church as well as the ways in which race class religion and gender inform its evolution Provides a comprehensive view of the contributions of African American Scholarship to the current theological discussion Written by scholars with broad expertise in a number of subject areas and disciplines Will enable the reader to relate the work of African American theological scholars to the tasks of preaching teaching and leading in local congregations Will provide the reader the most comprehensive understanding of African American theological scholarship available in one volume Stacey Floyd Thomas Brite Divinity School Juan Floyd Thomas Texas Christian University Carol B Duncan Wilfrid Laurier University Stephen G Ray Jr Lutheran Theological Seminary Philadelphia Nancy Lynne Westfield Drew University Theology Theology and Doctrine Contemporary Theology Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life
