Light It Up John Pettegrew,2015-11-15 Examines the U S Marines visual culture of combat in the Iraq War American military power in the War on Terror has increasingly depended on the capacity to see the enemy The act of seeing enhanced by electronic and digital technologies has separated shooter from target eliminating risk of bodily harm to the remote warrior while YouTube videos eroticize pulling the trigger and video games blur the line between simulated play and fighting Light It Up examines the visual culture of the early twenty first century military Focusing on the Marine Corps which played a critical part in the invasion and occupation of Iraq John Pettegrew argues that U S military force in the Iraq War was projected through an optics of combat Powerful military technology developed in the Iraq and Afghanistan wars has placed war in a new posthuman era Pettegrew s interviews with marines as well as his analysis of first person shooter videogames and combat footage lead to startling insights into the militarization of popular digital culture An essential study for readers
