Motley family A historian Portwood enhances the Motley family story by investigating primary data such as census marriage school and land records newspaper accounts city directories and other sources The backbone of this saga however is oral history gathered from five generations extending back to Portwood s grandparents born more than one hundred years ago Information regarding two earlier generations her great grandfather and great great grandparents who were slaves is based on historical research into state archives county and local records plantation records and manuscript censuses A rich source for this material the Motley family reunions are week long retreats where four generations gather at the John Motley house in Burlington Connecticut the Portwood home in Godfrey Illinois or other locations Here the Motleys all natural storytellers pass on the family traditions The stories ranging from humorous to poignant reveal much about the culture and history of African Americans especially those from nonurban areas Like many rural African Americans the Motleys have a rich and often joyful family history with traditions reaching back to the slave past They have known the harsh poverty that made even the necessities difficult to obtain and the racial prejudice that divided whites and blacks during the era of Jim Crow segregation and inequality yet they have kept a tremendous faith in self improvement through hard work and education

Chicken Soup for the Single Parent's Soul Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, 2012-08-14 Every single parent has a different story to tell but a common thread of hope and comfort unites them all Chicken Soup for the Soul: Angels and the Miraculous Amy Newmark, 2023-09-26 These true stories of angels and miracles will strengthen your faith and remind you that good things do happen to good people Miracles divine intervention amazing coincidences these unexplainable unexpected surprises bless the lives of people from all walks of life You ll be inspired and comforted by these 101 stories from ordinary people who ve experienced the extraordinary including Tamra who tripped and began to fall while teaching her students The entire class was shocked when unseen hands stopped Tamra in mid fall and lifted her back to standing Dave who while working in his late mother s garden was approached by a strange man who told him where to put a certain plant Dave found his mom s missing diamond ring there Kerry who asked her father to send snow so she would know he was okay Minutes after he died despite the sunny 45 degree day it flurried Donna who was awoken by a shimmering woman in her bedroom who warned her to get out of bed and run seconds before a tornado shattered her window Jean whose pet parakeet escaped presumably lost forever until he turned up a mile away where he landed on the bald head of her husband s identical twin Books That Cook Jennifer Cognard-Black, Melissa A. Goldthwaite, 2014-08 Whether a five star chef or beginning home cook any gourmand knows that recipes are far more than a set of instructions on how to make a dish They are culture keepers as well as culture makers both recording memories and fostering new ones Organized like a cookbook Books That Cook The Making of a Literary Meal is a collection of American literature written on the theme of food from an invocation to a final toast from starters to desserts All food literatures are indebted to the form and purpose of cookbooks and each section begins with an excerpt from an influential American cookbook progressing chronologically from the late 1700s through the present day including such favorites as American Cookery the Joy of Cooking and Mastering the Art of French Cooking The literary works within each section are an extension of these cookbooks while the cookbook excerpts in turn become pieces of literature forms of storytelling and memory making all their own Each section offers a delectable assortment of poetry prose and essays and the selections all include at least one tempting recipe to entice readers to cook this book Including writing from such notables as Maya Angelou James Beard Alice B Toklas Sherman Alexie Nora Ephron M F K Fisher and Alice Waters among many others Books That Cook reveals the range of ways authors incorporate recipes whether the recipe flavors the story or the story serves to add spice to the recipe Books That Cook is a collection to serve students and teachers of food studies as well as any epicure who enjoys a good meal alongside a good book The Parent's Guide to Food Allergies Marianne S.
