Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world

International Handbook of Urban Education William T. Pink, George W. Noblit, 2008-09-03 It is evident that urban education has become the central focus of educators at the present time In the U S for example almost one third of all school age children attend schools in large urban school districts It is in these urban schools where the diversity of cultures and languages is highest and where student learning is most problematic What has emerged from recent work to improve urban schools is the insight that there is no one size fits all panacea Rather we have discovered that the local context shapes in critically important ways what will be effective at the school level The universality of the problematics with urban education together with the importance of understanding the local or situated context of improvement interventions brings into sharp focus the importance and timeliness of an undertaking like the International Handbook of Urban Education An important focus of the International Handbook of Urban Education will be the interrogation of both the social and political factors that lead to different problem posing and subsequent solutions within each region An important question to be answered for example is what it takes in terms of resources political will and policy actions to improve urban education

Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education Maguvhe, Mbulaheni Obert, Mpya, Nwacoye Gladness, Sadiki, Marubini Christinah, 2024-02-16 In the vast expanse of education a pervasive issue remains in the marginalization and lack of visibility of individuals with disabilities Despite a strong desire for inclusivity recent research suggests that fewer than 5% of children with disabilities in 51 countries across sub Saharan Africa and South Asia are enrolled in primary school This exclusion is not solely in enrollment numbers even those who manage to attend face learning environments ill equipped to adapt to their needs leading to further isolation Girls with disabilities in particular endure heightened vulnerability to abuse reflecting a systemic failure to provide an environment that fosters equality dignity and respect for all The Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education emerges as an inspiration for change providing a profound solution to the persistent issue of exclusion The book encapsulates a collective effort to reimagine education It advocates for a paradigm shift moving away from the confinement of special schools and towards inclusive mainstream settings By addressing controversies sharing successes and outlining prospects the book serves as a comprehensive guide for special school governing bodies curriculum advisors university lecturers and all stakeholders committed to reshaping education Resources in Education, 2001-04

Handbook of Research on Student-Centered Strategies in Online Adult Learning Environments Fitzgerald, Carlton J.,Laurian-Fitzgerald, Simona,Popa, Carmen,2018-06-08 As traditional classroom settings are transitioning to online environments teachers now face the challenge of using this medium to promote effective learning strategies especially when teaching older age groups Because adult learners bring a different set of understandings and skills to education than younger students such as more job and life experiences the one size fits all approach to teaching does not work thus pushing educators to create a student centered approach for each learner The Handbook of Research on Student Centered Strategies in Online Adult Learning Environments is an important resource providing readers with multiple perspectives to approach issues often associated with adult learners in an online environment This publication highlights current research on topics including but not limited to online competency based education nontraditional adult learners virtual classrooms in public universities and teacher training for online education This book is a vital reference for online trainers adult educators university administrators researchers and other academic professionals looking for emerging information on utilizing online classrooms and environments in student centered adult education The SAGE Handbook of Clinical Neuropsychology Gregory J. Beyond Ethnicism Wairimu Nderitu,2015-12-29 The manual Beyond Ethnicism Exploring Racial and Ethnic Diversity for Educators a first of its kind in Kenya speaks to the key issues of ethnic and racial belonging that are such a key determining factor in defining and dividing Kenyans These two issues influence many social economic and especially political decisions The manual transcends the limitations of current discussions on ethnicism and racism Questions of ethnic and racial belonging are connected to some of the deepest moral and political decisions of our time Belonging is an emotional subject that as a country citizens should not lose capacity to discuss coherently An educator who wanted to know how to end ethnicism and racism inspired the writing of this manual Ethnic and racial favoritism as well as discrimination have seeped into the Kenyan education system Educators sit in staff rooms as members of political parties or ethnic communities and sometimes consciously or unconsciously perpetuate ethnic and racial stereotypes and prejudices Educators find talking about ethnicism and racism difficult They do not know where to begin yet they can recognise ethnicism and racism in learners Sometimes they practice it themselves favouring or discriminating learners on the basis of ethnicity or race Educators are sometimes helpless in arresting ethnicist and racist practices in their learners or themselves as they do not have the tools to do so This manual is a practical resource which assists educators in contextualising ethnic and race related concerns without undermining the human rights it also helps in creating the space for discourse amongst educators on how to combat ethnicism and racism It asks rarely addressed critical and significant questions on the meaning of ethnic and racial belonging The manual addresses the arresting of stereotypes and prejudice before they morph into actual discrimination and sometimes violence

Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher, Kate Cockcroft, 2013-01-01 This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners
