Saarinen,Jennifer Fitchett,Gijsbert Hoogendoorn,2022-03-30 This book explores the nature of climate change in southern Africa its impacts on tourism and the resilience adaptation and governance needs in various tourism operations and environments Previous studies on climate change and tourism have mainly focused on the Global North and specific forms of tourism such as snow based winter activities Drawing on case studies from a wide range of countries including South Africa Lesotho Namibia Botswana and Zimbabwe this book fills this lacuna by describing and analysing the climate change and tourism nexus in the southern African context The book begins by providing an overview of the current and estimated impacts of climate change to the tourism industry in the region highlighting the deepening socio economic inequities and environmental and social injustices It focuses on the importance of sustainable tourism in tackling these issues and highlights that resilience and robust governance and policy systems are essential for a tourism destination to successfully adapt to change By synthesising the key lessons learned through this analysis Climate Change and Tourism in Southern Africa also draws attention to specific adaptation and policy strategies which have value for other regions in the Global South This book book length introduction to the history of each of the four major traditions in anthropology British German French and American The result of lectures given by distinguished anthropologists Fredrik Barth Andre Gingrich Robert Parkin and Sydel Silverman to mark the foundation of the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology this volume not only traces the development of each tradition but considers their impact on one another and assesses their future potentials Moving from E B Taylor all the way through the development of modern fieldwork Barth reveals the repressive tendencies that prevented Britain from developing a variety of anthropological practices until the late 1960s Gingrich meanwhile articulates the development of German anthropology paying particular attention to the Nazi period of which surprisingly little analysis has been offered until now Parkin then assesses the French tradition and in particular its separation of theory and ethnographic practice Finally Silverman traces the formative influence of Franz Boas the expansion of the discipline after World War II and the fault lines and promises of contemporary anthropology in the United States Annual Report - the Transvaal Chamber of Mines, Timber Research Laboratory Transvaal and Orange Free State Chamber of Mines. Timber Research Laboratory,1905 Unfabling the East Jürgen Osterhammel,2019-11-19 During the long eighteenth century Europe s travelers scholars and intellectuals looked to Asia in a spirit of puzzlement irony and openness In this panoramic and colorful book J rgen Osterhammel tells the story of the European Enlightenment s nuanced encounter with the great civilizations of the East from the Ottoman Empire and India to China and Japan Here is the acclaimed book that challenges the notion that Europe s formative engagement with the non European world was invariably marred by an imperial gaze and presumptions of Western superiority Osterhammel shows how major figures such as Leibniz Voltaire Gibbon and Hegel took a keen interest in Asian culture and history and introduces lesser known scientific travelers colonial administrators Jesuit missionaries and adventurers who returned home from Asia bearing manuscripts in many exotic languages huge collections of ethnographic data and stories that sometimes defied belief Osterhammel brings the sights and sounds of this tumultuous age vividly to life from the salons of Paris and the lecture halls of Edinburgh to the deserts of Arabia the steppes of Siberia and the sumptuous courts of Asian princes He demonstrates how Europe discovered its own identity anew by measuring itself against its more senior continent and how it was only toward the end of this period that cruder forms of Eurocentrism and condescension toward Asia prevailed
