Seaforth World Naval Review 2013 Conrad Waters, 2015-10-31 Seaforth World Naval Review 2013. Launched in 2009, this annual has rapidly established a reputation as an authoritative but affordable summary of all that has happened in the naval world in the previous twelve months. It combines the standing features of regional surveys with one off major articles on noteworthy new ships and other important developments. Besides the latest warship projects, it also looks at wider issues of importance to navies such as aviation and electronics and calls on expertise from around the globe to give a balanced picture of what is going on and to interpret its significance. Planned special features for this year include in depth studies of the navies of Italy and Ireland plus analyses of significant new warship classes: the French Aquitaine class frigates, Indian Shivalik class Project 17 frigates and US Bertholf class national security cutters. Intended to make interesting reading as well as providing authoritative reference, there is a strong visual emphasis including specially commissioned drawings and the most recently released photographs and artists' impressions. For anyone with an interest in contemporary naval affairs, whether an enthusiast or a defence professional, this annual has become required reading.

Oceanic Strategy Vidhan Pathak, Raghvendra Kumar, 2024-12-03 This book introduces the concept of oceanic strategy, expanding beyond traditional maritime and naval perspectives to include political, economic, socio-cultural and ecological dimensions. It highlights the Indian Ocean Region as a critical arena for global power competition where the abundance of resources, strategic significance and emerging interests have made it a new frontier for opportunity, growth and conflict. By incorporating aspects like oceanic security, resource exploration, the blue economy and hydrography, the book presents a broader view of strategic thought and the role of oceanic spaces in national and global geopolitics Focusing on key players such as India China the US and other traditional and emerging powers the book analyses the reorientation of national interests and the intensifying struggle for dominance in the Indian Ocean It argues that control over this region is crucial for attaining influence in 21st century geopolitics The work also addresses non traditional security threats like piracy and transnational crime situating the Indian Ocean at the heart of modern geopolitical discourse This book is an essential resource for students and scholars of international relations strategic studies and political science offering critical insights into the evolving power dynamics shaping the future of the Indian Ocean Region Jane's Navy International ,2008
