SCM Studyguide Early Christian Doctrine and the Creeds Piotr Ashwin-Siejkowski, 2013-02-11 The SCM Studyguides are becoming increasingly well known recognized and adopted as accessible textbooks for level 1 students who have no prior knowledge of the subject The SCM Studyguide Early Christian Doctrine and the Creeds offers an accessible stimulating and interactive guide book to the emergence of Christian identity with particular attention to the earliest form of the Christian thought and doctrine The author analyses the crucial statements of the early Creeds and rules of faith He explains the creedal statements on the nature of God creation incarnation redemption the Church and eschatology and outlines the theological context which influenced their formulation and later modifications by other texts and authors The Creeds are part of the heritage of all Christian tradition and therefore have to be studied by both theological students and in the context of education for discipleship modules SCM Studyguide: Philosophy and the Christian Faith Ben Pugh , 2018-12-04 The challenges that Western culture keeps posing to the Christian faith are ever new The goal posts keep changing This study guide will equip theology students to understand the culture shaping beliefs that are driving the kinds of questions it brings to faith It will be an historical overview of the key stages in the history of Western philosophy with each section carefully tracing the genealogical line of ideas and the Christian responses to them right up to the present day For most theology students learning abstract philosophical concepts involves literally learning a new language a language that the initiated converse in with ease but which leaves the uninitiated baffled Thus each chapter in this study guide opens with a glossary of terms Throughout the studyguide students are encouraged to reflect on the ways in which what has been learned might be applied in both explicitly theological and wider cultural contexts for example they might be asked to think of a film or book that seems to express elements of existentialism or postmodernism or to describe how something very like the extreme subjectivity of idealism can sometimes shows itself in Sunday morning worship
