Telepractice in Audiology Emma Rushbrooke,K. Todd Houston,2015-12-01 Telepractice in Audiology provides practical information to audiologists to enable the development and delivery of a successful telepractice program Specifically the text discusses the technological requirements e g videoconferencing equipment remote programming software options Internet connections etc applications and models of service delivery in audiology policy and regulatory issues as well as future directions in the field The use of telepractice technology specifically the Internet and remote programming software has the potential to improve equity of access to services and reduce the burden placed on families Program reports outcomes and publications that are emerging demonstrate the ability to offer sophisticated audiological assessments with reliable outcomes This text provides the knowledge and skills required to implement a telepractice program that could provide a range of audiological services from diagnostics to intervention and habilitation rehabilitation Further different models of service delivery are presented thus demonstrating the flexibility of a telepractice approach Telepractice in Audiology is a useful resource for practicing clinicians as well as students training to be audiologists In addition teachers of the deaf speech language pathologists IT support persons and other individuals interested in the application of or endeavoring to implement teleaudiology programs will also benefit from this text State of the World's Cities 2012/2013 Un Habitat,2013-10-23
The city is the home of prosperity It is the place where human beings find satisfaction of basic needs and access to essential public goods The city is also where ambitions aspirations and other material and immaterial aspects of life are realized providing contentment and happiness It is a locus at which the prospects of prosperity and individual and collective well being can be increased However when prosperity is restricted to some groups when it is used to pursue specific interests or when it is a justification for financial gains for the few to the detriment of the majority the city becomes the arena where the right to shared prosperity is claimed and fought for As people in the latter part of 2011 gathered in Cairo s Tahrir Square in Madrid s Puerta del Sol in front of London s St Paul s cathedral or in New York s Zuccotti Park they were not only demanding more equality and inclusion they were also expressing the need for prosperity to be shared across all segments of society What this new edition of State of the World s Cities shows is that prosperity for all has been compromised by a narrow focus on economic growth UN Habitat suggests a fresh approach to prosperity beyond the solely economic emphasis including other vital dimensions such as quality of life adequate infrastructures equity and environmental sustainability The Report proposes a new tool the City Prosperity Index together with a conceptual matrix the Wheel of Prosperity both of which are meant to assist decision makers to design clear policy interventions The Report advocates for the need of cities to enhance the public realm expand public goods and consolidate rights to the commons for all as a way to expand prosperity This comes in response to the observed trend of enclosing or restricting these goods and commons in enclaves of prosperity or depleting them through unsustainable use The Report maps out major policy steps to promote a new type of city the city of the twenty first century that is a good people centred city One that is capable of integrating the tangible and more intangible aspects of prosperity and in the process shedding off the inefficient unsustainable forms and functionalities of the city of the previous century By doing this UN Habitat plays a pivotal role in ensuring that urban planning legal regulatory and institutional frameworks become instruments of prosperity and well being

Handbook of Research on Inclusive Development for Remote Adjunct Faculty in Higher Education Dailey-Hebert, Amber, Mandernach, B. Jean, Donnelli-Sallee, Emily, 2020-10-16 As the number of adjunct faculty teaching online courses remotely for their institutions continues to increase so do the unique challenges they face including issues of distance and isolation as well as problems pertaining to motivation time and compensation Not only are these higher education faculty geographically isolated from each other and their colleagues at flagship campuses but they also lack adequate institutional support and resources necessary to perform their roles As institutions continue to rely heavily on this group of under supported and undertrained instructors who teach the majority of online courses offered across the country institutions need models and strategies to tap the expertise and perspectives of this group not only to improve teaching and learning in online programs but also to retain this critical talent pool More consideration is needed to create institutional affinity and organizational commitment build community and create opportunities for remote adjunct faculty to be included as an integral component to their academic departments The Handbook of Research on Inclusive Development for Remote Adjunct Faculty in Higher Education is a comprehensive reference work that presents research theoretical frameworks instructor perspectives and program models that highlight effective strategies innovative approaches and unique considerations for creating professional development opportunities for remote adjunct faculty teaching online This book provides concrete practices that foster inclusivity among contingent faculty teaching online as well as tangible practices that have been successfully implemented from faculty developers and academic leaders at institutions who have a large population of and heavy reliance on remote adjunct instructors While addressing topics that include faculty engagement mentoring programs and instructor resources this book intends to support remote instructors in the post pandemic world It is also beneficial for faculty development professionals academic administrative leaders higher education stakeholders and higher education faculty researchers and students Entrepreneurial Spirit: From Startup to Success Story Yashpalsinh Jadeja,2023-11-20 Cultivate your entrepreneurial spirit with insights from startup to success This book offers practical advice and inspiration for aspiring entrepreneurs covering the journey from initial idea to thriving business Minerals Yearbook ,2010 Dogs, Zoonoses and Public Health Calum N.
