The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel

Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization

Criminal Law and the Modernist Novel Rex Ferguson, 2013-07-08 The realist novel and the modern criminal trial both came to fruition in the nineteenth century Each places a premium on the author s or trial lawyer s ability to reconstruct reality reflecting modernity s preoccupation with firsthand experience as the basis of epistemological authority But by the early twentieth century experience had as Walter Benjamin put it fallen in value The modernist novel and the criminal trial of the period began taking cues from a kind of nonexperience one that nullifies identity subverts repetition and supplants presence with absence Rex Ferguson examines how such nonexperience colours the overlapping relationship between law and literary modernism Chapters on E M Forster s A Passage to India Ford Madox Ford s The Good Soldier and Marcel Proust s In Search of Lost Time detail the development of a uniquely modern subjectivity offering new critical insight to scholars and students of twentieth century literature cultural studies and the history of law and philosophy

Swann's Way Marcel Proust, 2020-02-28 For a long time I used to go to bed early Sometimes when I had put out my candle my eyes would close so quickly that I had not even time to say I m going to sleep And half an hour later the thought that it was time to go to sleep would awaken me I would try to put away the book which I imagined was still in my hands and to blow out the light I had been thinking all the time while I was asleep of what I had just been reading but my thoughts had run into a channel of their own until I myself seemed actually to have become the subject of my book a church a quartet the rivalry between François I and Charles V This impression would persist for some moments after I was awake it did not disturb my mind but it lay like scales upon my eyes and prevented them from registering the fact that the candle was no longer burning Then it would begin to seem unintelligible as the thoughts of a former existence must be to a reincarnate spirit the subject of my book would separate itself from me leaving me free to choose whether I would form part of it or no and at the same time my sight would return and I would be astonished to find myself in a state of darkness pleasant and restful enough for the eyes and even more perhaps for my mind to which it appeared incomprehensible without a cause a matter dark indeed I would ask myself what o'clock it could be I could hear the whistling of trains which now nearer and now farther off punctuating the distance like the note of a bird in a forest shewed me in perspective the deserted countryside through which a traveller would be hurrying towards the nearest station the path that he followed being fixed for ever in his memory by the general excitement due to being in a strange place to doing unusual things to the last words of conversation to farewells exchanged beneath an unfamiliar lamp which echoed still in his ears amid the silence of the night and to the delightful prospect of being once again at home

Carol Shields, Narrative Hunger, and the Possibilities of Fiction Ted Farrell, 2003-01-01 Award winning Canadian writer Carol Shields has garnered praise from scholars and an international audience of readers Inspired by the quality and scope of Shields's work Carol Shields Narrative Hunger and the Possibilities of Fiction addresses her creative exploration of postmodernism As the first thorough examination of the Pulitzer Prize winning author this collection of essays establishes the groundwork for future studies of her oeuvre The collection begins with a significant new essay from Shields herself Narrative Hunger and the Overflowing Cupboard perhaps her most substantial commentary upon her own aims as a writer In addition

scholars from Canada England the United States and Australia explore the complexity of Shields s work and her contributions to the genre of the novel These lively essays reflect Shields s verve and her playful approach to today s sophisticated critical thinking Among the topics are Shields s use of biography and autobiography metafiction popular romance and symbolism While the essays foreground the unreliability of language and hence our inability to know one another or even ourselves the contributors argue that Shields has taken a step beyond postmodernism by suggesting that we can transcend the limitations of its epistemology Containing several essays on Swann and The Stone Diaries Shields s most popular works and the most extensive annotated bibliography available of works by and about Shields this collection will appeal widely to scholars students and readers of Carol Shields and Canadian fiction Prizing Literature Gillian Roberts,2011-10-29 When Canadian authors win prestigious literary prizes from the Governor General s Literary Award to the Man Booker Prize they are celebrated not only for their achievements but also for contributing to this country s cultural capital Discussions about culture national identity and citizenship are particularly complicated when the honorees are immigrants like Michael Ondaatje Carol Shields or Rohinton Mistry Then there is the case of Yann Martel who is identified both as Canadian and as rootlessly cosmopolitan How have these writers identities been recalibrated in order to claim them as representative Canadians Prizing Literature is the first extended study of contemporary award winning Canadian literature and the ways in which we celebrate its authors Gillian Roberts uses theories of hospitality to examine how prize winning authors are variously received and honoured depending on their citizenship and the extent to which they represent Canadianness Prizing Literature sheds light on popular and media understandings of what it means to be part of a multicultural nation Swann's Way Marcel Proust,2015-11-18 From the French novelist essayist critic and one of the greatest writers of the twentieth century the first volume of his monumental masterpiece one of the most sensitive renderings of childhood in fiction and a brilliant meditation on the recreation of the past through memory and art In C K Scott Moncrieff s heralded original English translation as revised by Terence Kilmartin based on the definitive French Pl iade edition Swann s Way is the most frequently read part of Proust s epic novel Remembrance of Things Past also known as In Search of Lost Time It introduces subjects that resonate throughout the entire work including the narrator s love for Swann s daughter Gilberte Swann s jealous passion for Odette and the rise of the nouveaux riches Verdurins Proust s narrator vividly recalls his childhood in Paris and Combray most famously in a fraught evocation of his mother s good night kiss and in the iconic scene where the taste of a madeleine dipped in tea brings back a flood of memory The Worlds of Carol Shields David Staines,2014-12-02 The Worlds of Carol Shields is the first book to examine Shields extraordinary career and life through the lens both of close friends and of literary critics
