towards primarily and exclusively dealing with class This study tries to combine both fields in an attempt to not only expose how present forms of masculinity are established but also how these forms interact with class In addition to Crenshaw s intersectionality theory Pyke s concept of interpersonal power and Connell s theory of hegemonic masculinity will be dealt with The synergy between masculinity and class will be scrutinized by means of two movie adaptations of The Great Gatsby 1974 2013 It will be shown that factors such as social and geographical mobility career and the need or ability to display class marked objects as well as the male body can be identified as producing and helping to maintain multiple forms of class based masculinity as well as shaping and changing these masculinities

The Symbolic Use of the Color Green in F. Scott Fitzgerald's "The Great Gatsby" Julia Deitermann, 2006-09-18 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject American Studies Literature grade A San Diego State University course Major American Writers language English abstract F

Scott Fitzgerald's masterpiece The Great Gatsby was written in a time of social decadence in which values no longer played an important role among the newly rich and wannabe famous whose life was about parties money and affairs. On the surface Fitzgerald's story also seems to deal with success wealth and love. Although the superficial life of the rich and powerful is a major theme in The Great Gatsby however it mostly explores underlying complexities and personalities and in this way reveals the negative side of the American Dream to the reader. Corruption despair and desperate desire come along with idealism faith and illusions. The protagonist Jay Gatsby personifies the American Dream as he is a man with a dubious background who managed to accomplish a luxurious style of living and to achieve everything he wanted to have by his own efforts except of his great love that is Daisy. The Great Gatsby is built upon the desperate desires of the protagonist and reveals a glance behind the glittering facade of the rich. Fitzgerald manages to draw the reader's attention to significant details and symbols in the text in order to make one think about so-called truths and about the sham reality of a society that tries to keep up appearances. Consequently symbols are an essential device of adding profundity to the text and of allowing the reader to gain insight into a character's personality. The most significant symbolism applied in The Great Gatsby is color symbolism green white gray blue and yellow being the most prominent colors throughout the novel. In this paper I will concentrate on analyzing Fitzgerald's symbolic use of the color green based on the most significant examples and thus try to expose the meaning of its appliance in regard to society and the protagonists in the novel.

On the surface Fitzgerald's story seems to be about success money and love thus about the mentioned newly rich. Although the superficial life of the rich and powerful is a major theme in The Great Gatsby it mostly explores underlying complexities and depths and therefore reveals the other side of the American Dream to the reader. Corruption despair and desperate desire come along with idealism faith and illusions. The protagonist Jay Gatsby personifies the American Dream as he is a man with a dubious background who managed to accomplish a luxurious style of living and to achieve everything he wanted to have by his own efforts except of his great love that is Daisy. The Great Gatsby is built upon the desperate desires of the protagonist and reveals a glance behind the glittering facade. Fitzgerald manages to draw the reader's attention to significant details and symbols in the text in order to make one think about the so-called truths in the story. Therefore symbolism plays a major role in The Great Gatsby. Symbolism is the most powerful device of allowing the reader to gain insight into a character's personality and of revealing hidden ideas values and profundity.
