Encyclopedia of Jewish Food Gil Marks, 2010-11-17 A comprehensive A to Z guide to Jewish foods, recipes and culinary traditions from an author who is both a rabbi and a James Beard Award winner. Food is more than just sustenance; it's a reflection of a community's history, culture and values. From India to Israel to the United States and everywhere in between, Jewish food appears in many different forms and variations but all related in its fulfillment of kosher laws, Jewish rituals and holiday traditions. The Encyclopedia of Jewish Food explores unique cultural culinary traditions as well as those that unite the Jewish people. Alphabetical entries from Afikomen and Almond to Yom Kippur and Za'atar cover ingredients, dishes, holidays and food traditions that are significant to Jewish communities around the world. This easy-to-use reference includes more than 650 entries, 300 recipes plus illustrations and maps throughout. Both a comprehensive resource and fascinating reading, this book is perfect for Jewish cooks, food enthusiasts, historians and anyone interested in Jewish history or food. It also serves as a treasure trove of trivia: for example, the Pilgrims learned how to make baked beans from Sephardim in Holland. From the author of such celebrated cookbooks as Olive Trees and Honey, the Encyclopedia of Jewish Food is an informative eye-opening and delicious guide to the culinary heart and soul of the Jewish people. Do You See What I See? Russell

Targ, 2025-09-12 Now in paperback, the droll memoir by a world-class physicist that includes recollections of his involvement with pioneering laser research, encounters with many of the most recognizable literary, cultural and entertainment figures of the 20th century and his role in teaching ESP techniques to the CIA. A real-life X-Files saga. Russell Targ is a Zelig-like character. His story is an idiosyncratic journey through the highways and byways of American intellectual, scientific and cultural life in the 20th century. His father, the long-time editor in chief at Putnam, acquired The Godfather on the basis of an outline scribbled on the back of a napkin. His mother was the first press agent of the fan dancer Sally Rand. His step-mother is the legendary literary agent Rosalind Targ. He was married for thirty years to the sister of the infamous chess master Bobby Fischer. He briefly dated Henny Youngman's cousin. He attended college with Alan Alda's wife, Arlene. He was part of Ayn Rand's study group in the 1950s along with economist Alan Greenspan. He was a pioneer in laser research. He spent many years developing air-borne laser wind sensors for Lockheed and NASA. He co-founded the Stanford Research Institute remote viewing program, which was funded by the CIA and was instrumental in tracking Soviet and Chinese weapon installations during the Cold War. And he is a legally blind motorcyclist who happens to be a Buddhist. This is a fascinating memoir by a first-class intellect, the story of a physicist who has pushed the boundaries of science to explore the realms of parapsychology, spirituality and the unexplained. Electronic Commerce and Web Technologies Kurt Bauknecht, Sanjay Kumar

Madria, Günther Pernul, 2003-06-29 This volume includes the papers accepted for the First International Conference on

Electronic Commerce and Web Technologies which was held in Greenwich UK on September 4 6 2000 The conference is the first of a series of planned conferences on these topics with the goal to bring together researchers from academia practitioners and commercial developers from industry and users to assess current methodologies and explore new ideas in e commerce and web technology The conference attracted 120 papers from all over the world and each paper was reviewed by at least three program committee members for its merit The program committee finally selected 42 papers for presentation and inclusion in these conference proceedings The conference program consisted of 14 technical sessions and two invited talks spread over three days The regular sessions covered topics such as web application design intellectual property rights security and fairness distributed organizations web usage analysis modelling of web applications electronic commerce success factors electronic markets XML web mining electronic negotiation integrity and performance facilitating electronic commerce and mobile electronic commerce There were two invited addresses at the conference The first was by Anthony Finkelstein University College London UK on A Foolish Consistency Technical Challenges in Consistency Management This was a common address to the DEXA the DaWaK and the EC Web attendees The second talk was by Paul Timmers European Commission Information Technologies Directorate on The Role of Technology for the e Economy Recent Releases Geert Hallbäck, Annika Hvithamar, 2008 The relationship between theology and film has always been a complicated one When film was invented at the end of the nineteenth century it quickly gained its place in popular culture far from the orthodoxies of the scholarly world and of the Church For the better part of the twentieth century popular cinema was considered off limits for serious studies of Bible and culture Recently however there has been a growing understanding of how the Bible is being used in popular culture not as a historical document or as an authoritative canon but as part of the cultural intertext Cinema is a vivid example of the role and impact of the Bible in contemporary society In this well theorized collection of essays the issue is treated from several angles Using the methodology of theology the question of the alleged escapism of popular cinema is explored Using the methodology of media studies the impact of the media on religious communication is analysed And using the methodology of religious studies the influence of the cinema in the creation of new religions religious behaviour and religious institutions is investigated In addition the book offers fruitful analyses of the cinematic use of biblical themes such as Eden salvation Mary Magdalene and Jesus as well as of the cinematic application of ethical themes such as truth telling personal growth suffering the accomplishment of good and the creating of meaning for human beings
