The Globetrotting Shopaholic Tanfer Emin-Tunc,Annessa Ann Babic,2008 The thrust of the literature on consumer space and society focuses on product labeling marketing techniques and approaches to branding as well as how mass consumer culture has reshaped individuals interaction with needs and desires Globetrotting Shopaholics departs from this current discourse by examining both consumption venues and the cultural political and social reasons why we consume It elucidates international trends in consumption politics and how they impact the creation of consumer spaces which in this book takes the form of numerous global loci including Canada's West Edmonton Mall Japanese theme parks shopping venues in the Philippines and expat boutiques in Budapest Using a wide range of epistemological frameworks including cultural ethnography historical analysis literary theory sociological dissection anthropological examination and philosophical ruminations this collection conveys how material objects and lifestyles are accumulated and represented internationally and how consumer goods and spaces define who we are as human beings Latina Magazine ,2005
