Exploring Single Black Mothers' Resistance Through Homeschooling Cheryl Fields-Smith, 2020-03-05 This book expands the concept of homeplace with contemporary Black homeschooling positioned as a form of resistance among single Black mothers Chapters explore each mother s experience and unique context from their own perspectives in deciding to homeschool and developing their practice It corroborates many of the issues that plague the education of Black children in America including discipline disproportionality frequent referrals to special education services teachers low expectations and the marginalization of Black parents as partners in traditional schools This book demonstrates how single mothers experience the inequity in school choice policies and also provides an understanding of how single Black mothers experience home school partnerships within traditional schools Most importantly this volume challenges stereotypical characterizations of who homeschools and why

The Big Book of Home Learning Volume 1 Getting Started Mary Pride,2000-09 Homefires ,2000 Where Do I Belong Sarah Carrington,2023-04-17 This is a memoir of Sarah Carrington Born and raised in a religious community Sarah knew nothing about the outside world Everything she ate wore read and did was governed by the beliefs of her community A community she grew to call a cult Sarah spent most of her free time as a child in nature with her survival enthusiast parents She learned to survive and thrive in all seasons with few supplies Then her father died in a tragic accident As adolescence changed her body it also changed the way some men treated her At thirteen needing to escape she left the commune Woefully unprepared with minimal education and no believable work skills she teetered on the brink of homelessness Her naivety drew her into a world of sex and drugs without the rock and roll Despite enduring traumas and indignities she became a sexually confident woman as she searched for a place to belong By age twenty three Sarah became an orphan pregnant a stepmother and a guardian to her siblings But the world wasn't done with her yet Educating for Democracy in a Changing World Stephen M.
