Frary, Mara Kozelsky, 2014-08-12 During the nineteenth century as violence population dislocations and rebellions unfolded in the borderlands between the Russian and Ottoman Empires European and Russian diplomats debated the Eastern Question or What should be done about the Ottoman Empire Russian Ottoman Borderlands brings together an international group of scholars to show that the Eastern Question was not just one but many questions that varied tremendously from one historical actor and moment to the next The Eastern Question or from the Ottoman perspective the Western Question became the predominant subject of international affairs until the end of the First World War Its legacy continues to resonate in the Balkans the Black Sea region and the Caucasus today The contributors address ethnicity religion popular attitudes violence dislocation and mass migration economic rivalry and great power diplomacy Through a variety of fresh approaches they examine the consequences of the Eastern Question in the lives of those peoples it most affected the millions living in the Russian and Ottoman Empires and the borderlands in between Clans and Democratization: Chechnya, Albania, Afghanistan and Iraq Charlotte Hille, 2020-05-06 In Clans and Democratization Charlotte Hille investigates clan societies in Afghanistan Iraq Albania and Chechnya She explores and compares the values of clans with those in Western democratic states while focusing at conflict resolution and democratization Based on theory and practice this book provides tools to facilitate democratic state building in clan based societies The EU and Conflict Resolution Nathalie Tocci, 2007-05-22 Through the study of five ethno political conflicts lying on or just beyond Europe s borders this book analyzes the impact and effectiveness of EU foreign policy on conflict resolution Conflict resolution features strongly as an objective of the European Union s foreign policy In promoting this aim the EU s geographical focus has rested primarily in its beleaguered backyard to the south and to the east Taking a strong comparative approach Nathalie Tocci explores the principal determinants of conflict dynamics in Cyprus Turkey Serbia Montenegro Israel Palestine and Georgia in order to assess the impact of EU contractual ties on them The volume includes topical analysis based on first hand experience in depth interviews with all the relevant actors and photography in ongoing conflict areas in the Middle East the Eastern Mediterranean the Balkans and the Caucasus This revealing study shows that the gap between EU potential and effectiveness often rests in the specific manner in which the EU collectively chooses to conduct its contractual relations The EU and Conflict Resolution will be of interest to all readers who wish to acquire an excellent understanding of the EU s impact on conflict contexts and will appeal to scholars of European politics security studies and conflict resolution Non-traditional Security Threats and Regional Cooperation in the Southern Caucasus Mustafa Aydın, 2011 This book contains 16 papers presented at the workshop Non Traditional Security Threats and Regional Cooperation in the Southern Caucasus which was held in Istanbul Turkey in October 2009 Whilst the Cold War

did not exclude the existence of other threats such as environmental hazards organized crime terrorism economic instability and illegal immigration it is only since the emphasis on East West rivalry and the specter of nuclear confrontation between the two blocs have diminished that these have become articulated as major sources of concern for global security

Statebuilding and State-Formation Berit Bliesemann de Guevara, 2012-02-20 This book examines the ways in which long term processes of state formation limit the possibilities for short term political projects of statebuilding Using process oriented approaches the contributing authors explore what happens when conscious efforts at statebuilding meet social contexts and are transformed into daily routines In order to explain their findings they also analyse the temporally and spatially broader structures of world society which shape the possibilities of statebuilding Statebuilding and State Formation includes a variety of case studies from post conflict societies in Africa Asia and Europe as well as the headquarters and branch offices of international agencies Drawing on various theoretical approaches from sociology and anthropology the contributors discuss external interventions as well as self led statebuilding projects This edited volume is divided into three parts Part I State Formation Violence and Political Economy Part II Governance Legitimacy and Practice in Statebuilding and State Formation Part III The International Self Statebuilders Institutional Logics Social Backgrounds and Subjectivities The book will be of great interest to students of statebuilding and intervention war and conflict studies international security and IR

The Great Game in West Asia Mehran Kamrava, 2017 The Great Game in West Asia examines the strategic competition between Iran and Turkey for power and influence in the South Caucasus These neighbouring Middle East powers have vied for supremacy and influence throughout the region and especially in their immediate vicinity while both contending with ethnic heterogeneity within their own territories and across their borders Turkey has long conceived of itself as not just a bridge between Asia and Europe but in more substantive terms as a central player in regional and global affairs If somewhat more modest in its public statements Iran's parallel ambitions for strategic centrality and influence have only been masked by its own inarticulate foreign policy agendas and the repeated missteps of its revolutionary leaders But both have sought to deepen their regional influence and power and in the South Caucasus each has achieved a modicum of success In fact as the contributions to this volume demonstrate as much of the world's attention has been diverted to conflicts and flashpoints near and far a new great game has been unravelling between Iran and Turkey in the South Caucasus AFB-Info ,2002
