Vivekananda Swami Vivekananda was born in Shimla Pally Calcutta on 12 January 1863 during the Makara Sankranti festival in a traditional Kayastha family and was given the name Narendranath Dutta. His father Vishwanath Dutta was an attorney of Calcutta High Court. He was considered generous and had a liberal and progressive outlook on social and religious matters. His mother Bhuvaneshwari Devi was pious and had practiced austerities and prayed to Vireshwar Shiva of Varanasi to give her a son. According to Vivekananda, the important teaching he received from Ramakrishna was that Jiva is Shiva; each individual is divinity itself. This became his Mantra, and he coined the concept of daridra narayana seva, the service of God in and through poor human beings. As the book addresses this crucial issue quite deftly, it is hoped that it would prove to be a source of great information for the reader.
