Dreamscapes in Italian Cinema Francesco Pascuzzi, Bryan Cracchiolo, 2015-01-21 Dreamscapes in Italian Cinema explores different representations of dreams visions hallucinations and hypnagogic states in Italian film culture covering the works of some of the most significant auteurs in the history of Italian cinema Fellini Pasolini Moretti Bellocchio among others Dreams are discussed both in a filmic context considering the diegetic and formal techniques employed to construct and represent them and as allegories or metaphors in a broader cultural political and social sense the film industry itself as the proverbial dream factory and dreams as hopes aspirations or altogether parallel universes for example The book covers works released over different decades and spanning multiple genres drama gothic film horror comedy and it is intended to shed light on a topic that is as suggestive as it is insufficiently studied New York Magazine, 1985-10-21 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Women Times Three Kathleen Gregory Klein, 1995 The essays authors are not only widely published scholar critics of mystery detective fiction but also dedicated fans of the genre Familiar with the full scope of mystery fiction they bring insight and enthusiasm to their writing

Hollywood South Linda Thurman, 2016-10-15 A studio insider reveals the dramatic story of politics conspiracy and crime behind Louisiana's film industry boom From her work in Los Angeles to her role as an executive with Emerald Bayou Studios Linda Thurman had a front row seat to the tumultuous beginnings of Hollywood South She knows first hand how a conspiracy to manipulate the Louisiana film industry resulted in prison terms for film executive Malcolm Petal and state official Mark Smith In what reads like a modern day crime novel Thurman tells the full story from the chairman's office of a Hollywood studio to the corridors of the Louisiana legislature Part memoir and part expos Hollywood South sheds light on the shadowy and convoluted relationship between politics and entertainment in both Hollywood and Louisiana

The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema Daisuke Miyao, 2014 The reality of transnational innovation and dissemination of new technologies including digital media has yet to make a dent in the deep seated culturalism that insists on reinscribing a divide between the West and Japan The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema aims to counter this trend toward dichotomizing the West and Japan and to challenge the pervasive culturalism of today's film and media studies Featuring twenty essays each authored by a leading researcher in the field this volume addresses productive debates about where Japanese cinema is and where Japanese cinema is going at the period of crisis of national boundary under globalization It reevaluates the position of Japanese cinema within the discipline of cinema and media studies and beyond and situates Japanese cinema within the broader fields of transnational film history Likewise it examines the materiality of Japanese cinema scrutinizes cinema's relationship to other media and identifies the specific practices of film production and reception As a whole the volume fosters a dialogue between Japanese scholars of Japanese cinema film scholars of Japanese cinema based in Anglo American and European countries film scholars of non Japanese cinema film archivists film critics and filmmakers familiar with film scholarship A comprehensive volume that grasps Japanese cinema under the rubric of the global and also fills the gap between Japanese and non Japanese film studies and between theories and practices The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema challenges and responds to the major developments underfoot in this rapidly changing field New York Magazine, 1985-10-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Place, Setting, Perspective Eleanor Andrews, 2014-09-26 Place Setting Perspective examines the films of the Italian filmmaker Nanni Moretti from a fresh viewpoint employing the increasingly significant research area of space within a filmic text The book is conceived with the awareness that space cannot be studied only in aesthetic or narrative terms social political and cultural aspects of narrated spaces are equally important if a thorough appraisal is to be achieved of an oeuvre such as Moretti's which is profoundly associated with socio political commentary and analysis After an exploration of various existing frameworks of narrative space in film the book offers a particular definition of the term based on the notions of Place Setting and Perspective Place relates to the physical aspect of narrative space and specifically involves cityscapes landscapes interiors and exteriors in the real world Setting concerns genre characteristics of narrative space notably its differentiated use in melodrama detective stories fantasy narratives and gender based scenarios Perspective encompasses the point of view taken optically by the camera which supports the standpoint of Moretti's personal philosophy expressed through the aesthetic aspects which he employs to create narrative space The study is based on a close textual analysis of Moretti's eleven major feature films to date using the formal film language of mise en scene cinematography editing and sound The aim is to show how Moretti selects organizes constructs assembles and manipulates the many elements of narrative space into an entire work of art to enable meanings and pleasures for the spectator The Europeanness of European Cinema Mary Harrod, Mariana Liz, Alissa Timoshkina, 2014-12-19 From The Artist to The White Ribbon from Oscar to Palme d'Or winning productions European filmmaking is more prominent world wide than ever before This book identifies the distinctive character of European cinema both in films and as a critical concept asking what place does European cinema have in an increasingly globalized world Including in depth analyses of production and reception contexts as well as original readings of key European films from leading experts in the field it re negotiates traditional categories such as auteurism art cinema and national cinemas As the first publication to explore Europeanness in cinema this book refocuses and updates historically significant areas of study in relation to this term Leading scholars in European cinema including Thomas Elsaesser Tim Bergfelder Anne Jackel Lucy Mazdon and Ginette Vincendeau acknowledge the transnational character of European filmmaking whilst also exploring the oppositions between European and Hollywood filmmaking considering the value of the European label in the circulation of films within and beyond the continent The Europeanness of European Cinema makes a lively timely intervention in the fields

only in terms of past colonial relationships but also in relation to how the post colonial has engaged with shifting political alliances the opportunities for technological advancement and knowledge the promise of larger consumer markets and specific historical conditions of each decade The Last Bohemian Lance Pettitt,2023-06-12 The Last Bohemian offers the first extended critical evaluation of all of Brian Desmond Hurst s films reappraising the reputation of a director who was born in 1895 in Belfast and died in Belgravia London in 1986 Pettitt skillfully weaves together film analyses biography and cultural history with the aim of bringing greater attention to Hurst s qualities as a director and exploring his significance within Irish film and British cinema history between the 1930s and the 1960s The director of Dangerous Moonlight 1941 Theirs Is the Glory 1946 and his best known Scrooge 1951 made most of his films for British studios but developed an exile s attachment to Ireland How in the early twenty first century has Hurst s career been reclaimed and recognized and by whom Why in 2012 was Hurst s name given to one of the new Titanic Studios in Belfast What were his qualities as a filmmaker To whose national cinema history if any does Hurst belong Richly illustrated with film stills and other visual material from public archives The Last Bohemian addresses these questions and in doing so makes a significant contribution to British and Irish cinema studies

Eclipsed Cinema Dong Hoon Kim,2017-03-22 In this ground breaking investigation into the seldom studied film culture of colonial Korea 1910 1945 Dong Hoon Kim brings new perspectives to the associations between colonialism modernity film historiography and national cinema By reconstructing the lost intricacies of colonial film history Eclipsed Cinema explores under investigated aspects of colonial film culture such as the representational politics of colonial cinema the film unit of the colonial government the social reception of Hollywood cinema and Japanese settlers film culture Filling a significant void in Asian film history Eclipsed Cinema greatly expands the critical and historical scopes of early cinema and Korean and Japanese film histories as well as modern Asian culture and colonial and postcolonial studies Renia's Diary Renia Spiegel,Elizabeth Bellak,2019-09-24 A New York Times bestseller A USA Today bestseller The long hidden diary of a young Polish woman s life during the Holocaust translated for the first time into English Renia Spiegel was born in 1924 to an upper middle class Jewish family living in southeastern Poland near what was at that time the border with Romania At the start of 1939 Renia began a diary I just want a friend I want somebody to talk to about my everyday worries and joys Somebody who would feel what I feel who would believe me who would never reveal my secrets A human being can never be such a friend and that s why I have decided to look for a confidant in the form of a diary And so begins an extraordinary document of an adolescent girl s hopes and dreams By the fall of 1939 Renia and her younger sister Elizabeth n e Ariana were staying with their grandparents in Przemysl a city in the south just as the German and Soviet armies invaded Poland Cut off from their mother who was in Warsaw Renia and her family were plunged into war Like Anne Frank Renia s diary became a record of her daily life as the Nazis spread throughout Europe Renia writes of her mundane school life her daily drama with best friends falling in love with her boyfriend Zygmund as well as the agony of missing her mother separated by bombs and invading armies Renia had aspirations to be a writer and the diary is filled with her poignant and thoughtful poetry When she was forced into the city's ghetto with the other Jews Zygmund is able to smuggle her out to hide with his parents taking Renia out of the ghetto but not ultimately to safety The diary ends in July 1942 completed by Zygmund after Renia is murdered by the Gestapo Renia's Diary has been translated from the original Polish and includes a preface afterword and notes by her surviving sister Elizabeth Bellak An extraordinary historical document Renia Spiegel survives through the beauty of her words and the efforts of those who loved her and preserved her legacy Playin' Around Jennifer Ember Pierce, 1998 Session musicians are music industry's hidden stars unique and versatile players who spend hours every day in the recording studio working with the finest recording artists Their talent is essential for anyone who wants to succeed in the industry Nashville session musicians are a tight knit group of people and Pierce tells the inside story of their lives and careers based on first hand knowledge meetings interviews and documents given directly to the author by the musicians themselves There is no diluted point of view only the musicians speaking about the art and industry of making music A History of Italian Cinema Peter Bondanella, Federico Pacchioni, 2017-10-19 A History of Italian Cinema 2nd edition is the much anticipated update from the author of the bestselling Italian Cinema which has been published in four landmark editions and will celebrate its 35th anniversary in 2018 Building upon decades of research Peter Bondanella and Federico Pacchioni reorganize the current History in order to keep the book fresh and responsive not only to the actual films being created in Italy in the twenty first century but also to the rapidly changing priorities of Italian film studies and film scholars The new edition brings the definitive history of the subject from the birth of cinema to the present day up to date with a revised filmography as well as more focused attention on the melodrama the crime film and the historical drama The book is expanded to include a new generation of directors as well as to highlight themes such as gender issues immigration and media politics Accessible comprehensive and heavily illustrated throughout this is an essential purchase for any fan of Italian film Rediscovering Korean Cinema Sangjoon Lee, 2019-12-12 South Korean cinema is a striking example of non Western contemporary cinematic success Thanks to the increasing numbers of moviegoers and domestic films produced South Korea has become one of the world's major film markets In 2001 the South Korean film industry became the first in recent history to reclaim its domestic market from Hollywood and continues to maintain around a 50 percent market share today High quality South Korean films are increasingly entering global film markets and connecting with international audiences in commercial cinemas and art theatres and at major international film festivals Despite this growing recognition of the films themselves Korean cinema's rich heritage has not heretofore received significant scholarly attention in English language publications This groundbreaking collection of thirty five essays by a wide range of academic specialists situates current scholarship on Korean cinema within the ongoing theoretical debates in contemporary global film studies Chapters explore key films of Korean cinema from Sweet Dream Madame Freedom The Housemaid and The March of Fools to Oldboy

The Host and Train to Busan as well as major directors such as Shin Sang ok Kim Ki young Im Kwon taek Bong Joon ho Hong Sang soo Park Chan wook and Lee Chang dong While the chapters provide in depth analyses of particular films together they cohere into a detailed and multidimensional presentation of Korean cinema s cumulative history and broader significance With its historical and critical scope abundance of new research and detailed discussion of important individual films Rediscovering Korean Cinema is at once an accessible classroom text and a deeply informative compendium for scholars of Korean and East Asian studies cinema and media studies and communications It will also be an essential resource for film industry professionals and anyone interested in international cinema Cinema Art ,1926 Queer Cinema Harry M. Benshoff,Sean Griffin,2004 Queer Cinema the Film Reader brings together key writings that use queer theory to explore cinematic sexualities especially those historically designated as gay lesbian bisexual and or transgendered
