

The image shows the front cover of a biology textbook. The top half of the cover is divided into three vertical panels. The left panel shows a close-up of a plant with small red berries on thin green stems. The middle panel shows a yellow, porous, lattice-like structure, possibly a biological specimen or a model. The right panel shows a green, porous, lattice-like structure. Below these panels is a purple horizontal band with white text. Below the purple band is a black horizontal band with white text. The bottom of the cover features a grayscale image of a human face, looking slightly to the side. The overall design is modern and scientific.
