Manitoba School Journal ,1949 The School Review ,1923 Bulletin of the Garden Club of America ,1927 Soviet Fiction since Stalin Rosalind J. Marsh,2022-03-14 First published in 1986 Soviet Fiction since Stalin presents a comprehensive overview of the literature of the post Stalin period in the Soviet Union The rapid advances in science and technology in these years are reflected in the themes of many of the major novelists Pasternak Solzhenitsyn Sinyavsky Daniel and Grossman and scientific subjects frequently offer a vehicle for the exploration of the wider socio political moral and philosophical ideas As the period advances however literature becomes the first medium in which to express mistrust of scientific advance and hence indirectly of Soviet policy as a whole Rosalind J Marsh uses a broad definition of science which enables her to cover topics ranging from de Stalinization nationalism and anti Semitism in science to Lysenko and scientific charlatanism the Soviet rejection of relativity theory and quantum mechanics the atom bomb and also such general problems as secrecy careerism and bureaucracy The bulk of the book concentrates on the Khrushchev years but there is also plentiful discussion of more recent writing such as that of Zinoviev and Voinovich This book will be of interest to students and researchers of Soviet literature Russian Literature and literature in general American Forests and Forest Life ,1928 American Forestry ,1923 The Forest Service Glen O. Robinson,2013-11-26 First Published in 2011 This book provides a study of the Forest Service its organization and processes as one of the largest sub departmental bureaus in the federal government speaking to matters as they stood surrounding 1974 Robinson fits the Forest Service within the larger framework of public land management analyzing as an administrative institution with emphasis on its general processes problems and controversies This brings value to all those who know enough about the problems of resource management to be concerned Environmental Education in Action-V Margaret E. Cowan,William B. Stapp,1982 Wild Product Governance Sarah A. Laird,Rebecca J. McLain,Rachel P. Wynberg,2010 Products from the wild also known as non timber forest products NTFPs are used as medicines foods spices and a multitude of other purposes They contribute substantially to rural livelihoods generate revenue for companies and governments and have a range of impacts on biodiversity conservation However there is little information available for those seeking to develop effective policy frameworks and regulation This book addresses that shortage with information and recommendations on the drafting content and implementation of NTFP policies and the broader issues of governance associated with these products It reviews the diverse elements that combine to create laws and policies that promote sustainable and equitable management trade and use of species Drawing on a wealth of unique case studies from around the world this volume examines experiences with NTFP regulation including its sometimes unintended consequences It looks at economic factors the interface between traditional and western knowledge and legal systems and relationships between NTFP regulation land tenure and resource rights as well as power and equity imbalances The volume includes a review of available literature and resources plus an annotated bibliography linked to the People and Plants International website www peopleandplants org Published with People and Plants International
