Javatrekker Dean Cycon, 2007-10-17 In each cup of coffee we drink the major issues of the twenty first century globalization immigration women's rights pollution indigenous rights and self determination are played out in villages and remote areas around the world In Javatrekker Dispatches from the World of Fair Trade Coffee a unique hybrid of Fair Trade business adventure travel and cultural anthropology author Dean Cycon brings readers face to face with the real people who make our morning coffee ritual possible Second only to oil in terms of its value the coffee trade is complex with several levels of middlemen removing the 28 million growers in fifty distant countries far from you and your morning cup And according to Cycon 99 percent of the people involved in the coffee economy have never been to a coffee village They let advertising and images from the major coffee companies create their worldview Cycon changes that in this compelling book taking the reader on a tour of ten countries in nine chapters through his passionate eye and unique perspective Cycon who is himself an amalgam equal parts entrepreneur activist and mischievous explorer has traveled extensively throughout the world's tropical coffeelands and shows readers places and people that few if any outsiders have ever seen Along the way readers come to realize the promise and hope offered by sustainable business principles and the products derived from cooperation fair pricing and profit sharing Cycon introduces us to the Mamos of Colombia holy men who believe they are literally holding the world together despite the severe effects of climate change caused by us their younger brothers He takes us on a trip through an ancient forest in Ethiopia where many believe that coffee was first discovered 1 500 years ago by the goatherd Kaldi and his animals And readers learn of Mexico's infamous Death Train which transported countless immigrants from Central America northward to the U S border but took a horrifying toll in lost lives and limbs Rich with stories of people landscapes and customs Javatrekker offers a deep appreciation and understanding of the global trade and culture of coffee In each cup of coffee we drink the major issues of the twenty first century globalization immigration women's rights pollution indigenous rights and self determination are played out in villages and remote areas around the world What is Fair Trade Coffee Coffee prices paid to the farmer are based on the international commodity price for coffee the C price and the quality premium each farmer negotiates Fair Trade provides an internationally determined minimum floor price when the C plus premium sinks below 1 26 per pound for conventional and 1 41 for organics that s us As important as price Fair Trade works with small farmers to create democratic cooperatives that insure fair dealing accountability and transparency in trade transactions In an industry where the farmer is traditionally ripped off by a host of middlemen this is tremendously important Cooperatives are examined by the Fairtrade Labeling Organization FLO or the International Fair Trade Association IFAT European NGOs for democratic process and transparency Those that pass are listed on the FLO Registry or become IFAT members Cooperatives provide important resources and organization to small farmers in the form of technical assistance for crop and harvest improvement efficiencies in processing and shipping strength in negotiation and an array of needed social services such as health care and credit Fair Trade also requires pre financing of up to sixty percent of the value of the contract if the farmers ask for it Several groups such as Ecologic and Green Development Fund have created funds for pre finance lending Renewing America's Food Traditions Gary Paul Nabhan,2008 This work represents a dramatic call to recognize celebrate and conserve the great diversity of foods that give North America the distinctive culinary identity that reflects its multi cultural heritage Included are recipes and folk traditions associated with 100 of the continent s rarest food plants and animals The Taste of Place Amy B. Trubek,2008 While much has been written about the concept of terroir as it relates to wine this book expands the concept into cuisine and culture more broadly Bringing together stories of people farming cooking and eating the author focuses on a series of examples ranging from shagbark hickory nuts in Wisconsin to wines from northern California The Farmhouse Culture Guide to Fermenting Kathryn Lukas,Shane Peterson,2019-08-27 An authoritative and easy to use guide to fermentation with 100 recipes for fermented foods and drinks IACP AWARD WINNER Fermented and live culture foods are beloved for their bold and layered flavors as well as their benefits for gut health and boosting immunity but until now there hasn t been a book that is both authoritative and easy to use The Farmhouse Culture Guide to Fermenting provides you with the history health information and safest methods for preserving along with 100 recipes for krauts pickles kimchi fermented vegetables hot sauces preserved fruits and jams kombucha and even mead With trusted authors Kathryn Lukas founder of mega brand Farmhouse Culture and master fermenter and best selling author Shane Peterson and their thoroughly tested recipes this is the fermentation book that every home fermenter needs whether you are about to make your first batch of pickles or have been preserving foods for decades The Chelsea Green Reader Ben Watson,2014-12-02 Chelsea Green the Vermont based independent publisher has always had a nose for authors and subjects that are way ahead of the cultural curve as is evident in this new anthology celebrating the company s first thirty years in publishing The more than one hundred books represented in this collection reflect the many distinct areas in which we have published from literature and memoirs to progressive politics to highly practical books on green building organic gardening and farming food and health and related subjects all of which reflect our underlying philosophy The politics and practice of sustainable living The Chelsea Green Reader offers a glimpse into our wide ranging list of books and authors and to the important ideas that they express Interesting and worth reading in their own right the individual passages when taken as a whole trace the evolution of a highly successful small publisher something that is almost an oxymoron in these days of corporate buyouts and multinational book groups From the beginning Chelsea Green's books were nationally recognized garnering positive reviews accolades and awards We've published four New York Times bestsellers and our books have set the standard for in depth how to books that remain relevant years often decades beyond their original publication date Chelsea Green was born from a single seed the beauty of craft Craft in writing and editing in a story well told or a thesis superbly expressed writes cofounder and publisher emeritus Ian Baldwin in the book's foreword Today craft continues to inform all aspects of our work design illustration production sales promotion and beyond It has even informed our business model In 2012 Chelsea Green became an employee owned company With the rise of the Internet new media platforms and a constantly shifting bookselling landscape the future of publishing is anything but predictable But if Chelsea Green's books prove anything it is that despite these challenges there remains a hunger for new and important ideas and authors and for the permanence and craftsmanship of the printed word Today our ongoing mission is stronger than ever as we launch into our next thirty years of publishing excellence

This Organic Life Joan Dye Gussow, 2002-10-01 Joan Dye Gussow is an extraordinarily ordinary woman She lives in a home not unlike the average home in a neighborhood that is more or less typically suburban What sets her apart from the rest of us is that she thinks more deeply and in more eloquent detail about food In sharing her ponderings she sets a delightful example for those of us who seek the healthiest most pleasurable lifestyle within an environment determined to propel us in the opposite direction Joan is a suburbanite with a green thumb with a feisty defiant spirit and a relentlessly positive outlook At the heart of This Organic Life is the premise that locally grown food eaten in season makes sense economically ecologically and gastronomically Transporting produce to New York from California not to mention Central and South America Australia or Europe consumes more energy in transit than it yields in calories It costs 435 fossil fuel calories to fly a 5 calorie strawberry from California to New York Add in the deleterious effects of agribusiness such as the endless cycle of pesticide herbicide and chemical fertilizers the loss of topsoil from erosion of over tilled croplands depleted aquifers and soil salinization from over irrigation and the arguments in favor of this organic life become overwhelmingly convincing Joan's story is funny and fiery as she points out the absurdities we have unthinkingly come to accept You won't find an electric can opener in this woman's house In fact you probably won't find many cans as Joan has discovered ways to nourish herself literally and spiritually from her own backyard If you are looking for a tale of courage and independence in a setting that is entirely familiar read her story
