Mirrors in the Classroom Jane Fleming, Susan Catapano, Candace M. Thompson, Sandy Ruvalcaba Carrillo, 2016-06-08 Nearly 30% of all public school children attend school in large or mid size cities totaling more than 16 million students in 22 000 schools For schools serving culturally and linguistically diverse populations and large numbers of children living in poverty a significant achievement gap persists Proponents of multicultural education often advocate for instruction with culturally relevant texts to promote inclusion compassion and understanding of our increasingly diverse society Less discussion has focused on the significant body of research that suggests that culturally relevant texts have important effects on language and literacy development By connecting the dots of existing research More Mirrors in the Classroom raises awareness about the critical role that urban children's literature can play in helping children learn to read and write In addition it provides practical step by step advice for increasing the cultural relevance of school curricula in order to accelerate literacy learning

Moments that Matter in the Learning and Development of Children Kelly Ann Kolodny, 2020-08-01 Moments that Matter in the Learning and Development of Children Reflections from Educators explores the significant moments that unfold for young people in their schooling from the perspectives of teachers and school staff Educators often reflect on moments as being a critical piece of their work with children They can help make things better for students and produce a difference in lives They are meaningful for young people as well as consequential for teachers and school staff as they reflect on the outcomes of their efforts Yet as they are difficult to define and capture these moments often are not studied for the value they offer This book promotes awareness of these moments as well as their connected meanings and possibilities Recognizing the significance of moments extends an opportunity to situate schooling in broader contexts and to understand learners as whole embodied beings engaged in social interactions making sense of their surrounding world and generating transformations in it When educators reflect deeply about the possibilities connected to the moments they share with children they recognize the multitude of opportunities that support their learning and development They become awake to some of moments promises      The Elements of General Method Charles Alexander McMurry, 1903      Story Anne E.
