A Prospering Society John Hare,2011 This book seeks to explore the changing nature of English society through a case study of countryside and town in southern England during the period from c 1380 to c 1520 It explores the influence of landscape and population on the agriculture of Wiltshire the regional patterns of arable and pastoral farming and the growing contrast between the large scale mixed farming of the chalklands and the family farms of the claylands It examines the changing situation of the rural tenant population as it reacted to the greater opportunities available in the land market During this period Wiltshire became one of the great cloth producing counties of England as reflected in its rising taxable wealth Such economic expansion generated jobs both within the industry and beyond stimulating the market for food services and manufactured goods Salisbury was one of the greatest cities in the kingdom and below this was a hierarchy of interesting lesser towns But such growth generated its own problems more and more people became dependent on the cloth trade and particularly on exporting cloth if exports fell as during the mid fifteenth century crisis they suffered As scholars are increasingly aware the later Middle Ages was a period of considerable change and this study contributes to debates about the nature of both change and continuity at a national level It will also be of value to local historians interested in one of the most important periods in Wiltshire s history BLACKWELL S

[With] Supp Encyclopaedia Perthensis, 1816 Perinatal Events and Brain Damage in Surviving Children Fred Kubli, Naren Patel, W. Schmidt, O. Linderkamp, 2012-12-06 Decision making in modern obstetrics and perinatology is controlled by a variety of different factors but there is little doubt that in industrialized countries one of the most powerful single factors is the concern and fear of causing permanent brain damage in the unborn and newborn The dramatic increase in the rates of abdominal deliveries in many parts of the world is certainly rooted to a substantial part in the obstetrician's concern not so much about possible perinatal death but more so about permanent brain damage in surviving children This trend has been accelerated by the increasing number of litigations in connection with brain damage observed in many societies This problem itself has many aspects but it seems evident that litigation justified or unjustified is one modern expression of the human and social tragedy inflicted on individuals and families by the birth of a brain damaged child The medical social and human importance of the problem is in sharp contrast to the relative lack of scientific knowledge available This became very clear when the National Institutes of Health published the excellent review in 1985 on Prenatal and Perinatal Factors Associated with Brain Disorders and its editor J M West of Malatia Sarkis J. Eminian, 2004 West of Malatia begins around the turn of the Twentieth Century when Armenian refugees settled in Newburgh By 1920 many had married and Armenian families began to form In 1926 five young men were born to the families in one of the Clans The Boys of 26 were the first born sons of a Clan of seven families This is their story Bird Legs Dadaian jumped higher than Michael Jordan ever imagined one day Led by Sam Sisian grape leaf picking was an annual event that sent our caravans on a hunt for the finest grape leaves There was Jim who came from the hobo fires in Harvard gulley to play ball until September when they disappeared There was Garo Mesrobian in Pete's basement kneeling by a homemade Still sipping White Lightning Armenian Rachi Mano The Keeper of the Skewers prepares Shish Kebob while puzzled Odars look on No one knew the lady on Claassen As a fifteen year old Turvan eluding Turks discovers her baby brother is dead after carrying him on her back for days There were leaders like Khosrof Esayan who is remembered and older leaders like Harry Johnson who is long since forgotten Stories that took a lifetime to tell Studies in Medieval French University of Oxford, 1961

The Complete Tradesman Nancy Cox, 2016-12-05 The Complete Tradesman redresses the relative paucity of studies on the history of retailing before 1800 Based upon extensive research into diverse trade sources Cox takes issue with the surprisingly resilient stereotype of the dull and out of date shopkeeper in the early modern period showing that the retailing sector was well adapted to the social and economic needs of the day and quick to exploit new opportunities Chapters cover not only distribution shop design customer relations and networks between tradesmen but also attitudes to retailing official controls and the response to novelty By throwing light on subjects hitherto overlooked and challenging existing whiggish preoccupations with progress towards modern retailing systems this study signals a new approach to the history of retailing The focus is placed on assessing how far tradesmen especially shopkeepers satisfied and stimulated contemporary desires for consumer goods The London General Gazetteer, Or Geographical Dictionary; Containing a Description of the Various Countries, ... of the Known World, Etc ,1825
