Francois Tolmie,2005 Revised thesis doctoral University of the Free State Bloemfontein South Africa      Calling Men out of the Cave Nigel Mohammed,2015-12-04 In the time of Saul the people of God were in a small minority in a context of spiritual decline yet Jonathan who had an abusive father courageously called six hundred men who were hiding in caves onto the battlefield The battle shifted for Gods people because of one mans outstanding courage Through the onslaught of secularism humanism and related ideologies the church is viewed by the culture to be irrelevant a bit like these men hiding in caves because of the odds that are against them Is this because men have been under some kind of enchantment Under a spell from the enemy who is inherently intangible and has caused the decline of Western culture from a biblical worldview to individualism whose central idea now is that society can be composed of individuals without a central values system and heritage holding them together To destroy a nation the enemy has tried to dismantle families and thus masculinity and femininity Therefore a historical father absence is ultimately a spiritual battle and must be seen as such Jesus lived in a little platoon of twelve men trained invested in and released them therefore we have a proven model to follow why then have men been in serious decline from the church Mentors and spiritual fathers who know their calling are needed to produce men who will reproduce disciples who in turn will also be mentors and spiritual fathers with courage and vision to restore the broken foundations The foundations have been progressively dismantled but men are called to be the foundation by knowing that as followers of Jesus Christ we are the beloved of God and this can be a catalyst to finding and living our calling to live in His larger story together

Aquinas on Israel and the Church Matthew A Tapie, 2015-02-26 Theologians have long debated the significance of the Jewish religion for the Christian Church Some scholars see Thomas Aquinas as the leading advocate of the belief that Israel has been superseded by the Church while others hold that Aquinas avoids supersessionism altogether The discussion has however not always analysed the terminology nor has it taken into account some of Aquinas's commentaries on Paul's letters his writings most relevant to the subject Drawing upon the Pauline commentaries Matthew Tapie shows that while Aquinas's most commonly articulated view is that the passion of Christ made Jewish worship and the Mosaic law obsolete Aquinas also advanced views that set this into question in ways that support Christian teachings affirming the value of post biblical Judaism In doing so he provides both a rich and timely reminder of the ambiguities in Aquinas's thought and makes an important contribution to the literature of supersessionism
