Prodigal Son John Givens, 2000 A wildly prolific director actor and writer Vasilii Shukshin 1929-74 reached more Soviets in more media than perhaps any other artist in the post-Stalinist USSR This first English language study of Shukshin and his work is thus a portrait of the culture of Soviet Russia after Stalin John Givens begins with Shukshin's position between cultural realms and social strata his abandoned peasant heritage in Siberia as the son of a purged kulak on the one hand and his life as a successful artist in Moscow on the other Givens shows how this clash of cultures and identities was both a burden and the driving force of Shukshin's art and how it represents a central dichotomy between rural and urban culture in Soviet Russia This work provides new terms for rereading the culture of Shukshin's time terms that take up notions of demographic displacement class difference and blurred boundaries among genres audiences and arts

The Reception of Joseph Conrad in Europe Robert Hampson, Véronique Pauly, 2022-05-05 Born and brought up in Poland bilingually in French and Polish but living for most of his professional life in England and writing in English Joseph Conrad was from the start as much a European writer as he was a British one and his work from his earliest fictions through Heart of Darkness Nostromo and The Secret Agent to his later novels has repeatedly been the focal point of discussions about key issues of the modern age With chapters written by leading international scholars this book provides a wide ranging survey of the reception translation and publication history of Conrad's works across Europe Covering reviews and critical discussion and with some attention to adaptations in other media these chapters situate Conrad's works in their social and political context The book also includes bibliographies of key translations in each of the European countries covered and a timeline of Conrad's reception throughout the continent

The City Is served Bartholomew! to the American Prison! William Alexander Patterson, 4th, 2010 UC Berkeley English professor Robert Hass winner the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Critics Circle Awards has written that Alex Patterson is a very gifted young writer The book is about how children in a heavenly state begin to know the earthly world How much of an illusion are both How our vital instincts create these illusions How our subjectivity reigns upon our lives The book is a remarkable piece of art Marian Apostol Professor Department of Theoretical Physics Institute of Atomic

Physics Magurele Bucharest July 2009 This essay is not a term paper on prisons in America Rather it is a document of personal disclosure Mr Patterson has engaged passionately with his American tradition This is to the degree of an exceptionality that is remarkably exposed in this work He has wrestled so intensely with America that he has taken to exile in Europe This is the second exceptionality remarked here I write criticism of academic physics and do it with some flair But Alex addresses a bigger culture and hierarchy writing with such passion poetry and structure as to make the third exceptionality of this work I think that this all amounts to a ponderance worthy of your time Michael J Burns October 30 2009
