The track looked like a huge water slide built of ancient wooden scaffolding Instead of a plastic trough and running water it was a bed of twisting glistening ice Now I could see that a sixty foot run after making a huge curve merged into a forty foot run Then the run made multiple turns before one final downward plunge For a second it seemed miraculous that the track wasn't littered with broken bodies I climbed the steep stairs to the lowest run and waited I felt nauseous and hoped no one could tell I was a little scared Too soon it was my turn There was no escape I positioned myself on the sled I fought panic while waiting for the operator to give me the go signal Off I went with my heart skipping a few beats The wind whipped against my face from Polar Bear Camping It's 6:50 a.m I know this time all too well The ritual has begun My mom climbs the steps of the ladder to my top bunk to tickle my feet a tactile alarm clock Oh it's Thursday not just any day of the week It's the day when exhaustion and fatigue will rule me and my only salvation will be a special place on the most comfortable sofa in the family room where the angle of the television screen is just right and the pillows outline the shape of my body I call this place THE SPOT from The Perfect Spot
