North African Societies after the Arab Spring Massimiliano Cricco, Leila El Houssi, Alessia Melcangi, 2016-06-22 No attempt to define the Mediterranean as a region can overlook the multiplicity of political religious and social forces at work along its shores Responding to changes in the global and regional environment these forces have interacted in complex ways as evidenced by their impact on the social cultural and political life of the states comprised between the covers of this collaborative volume The peculiarity of the Mediterranean as has been noted time and again lies in its geographical position as a sea in the middle of the land where different religions and cultures vie for recognition and self expression In the wake of the popular uprisings that have inflamed the region beginning in Tunisia in December 2010 a drastic reorganisation of their respective state systems is coming into focus in Tunisia Egypt and Libya Though their paths do not run along parallel lines they share a common denominator the determination of their people to become the masters of their destinies and to do so by grappling with new forms of democracy Almost five years later after their rulers became the target of violent mass protests Tunisia Egypt and Libya are going through an exceptionally difficult transition trying to accommodate their nascent constitutional forms to the new forces inspired by the Arab Spring

"Rival Sisters, Art and Music at the Birth of Modernism, 1815-1915" James H. Rubin, 2017-07-05 Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900 This collection puts forward a more complex history of the relationship between art and music than has been described in earlier works including an intermixing of models and distinctions between approaches to them Individual essays from art history musicology and literature examine the growing influence of art upon music and vice versa in the works of Berlioz Courbet Manet Fantin Latour Rodin Debussy and the Pre Raphaelites among other artists
