Troubling Archives Julia Rensing, 2025-05-23 Namibia's colonial history casts a long shadow over the country's present Contemporary authors and artists confront the legacies of German and South African colonial rule and engage creatively with the persistent remnants of the past In their works the archive remains both an invaluable and fraught resource for accessing obscured histories Julia Rensing examines how writers and artists from Namibia and South Africa navigate archival silences omissions and power structures to renegotiate historical narratives and address intergenerational trauma Their creative practices challenge conventional understandings of archives and forms of commemoration highlighting the diverse experiences that shape Namibian society and memory cultures

Reflection on the Death of a Porcupine D. H. Lawrence, 2019-02-20 This collection of essays by the author of Lady Chatterley's Lover presents his musings on literature politics and philosophy in a newly restored text Though D H Lawrence was one of the great writers of the twentieth century his works were severely corrupted by the stringent house styling of printers and the intrusive editing of timid publishers A team of scholars at Cambridge University Press has worked for more than thirty years to restore the definitive texts of D H Lawrence in The Cambridge Editions Between 1915 1925 D H Lawrence wrote a series of philosophical essays covering topics ranging from politics to nature and from religion to education Varying in tone from lighthearted humor to spiritual meditation they all share the underlying themes of Lawrence's mature work Be thyself As far as possible the editors of the Cambridge Editions series have restored these essays to their original form as Lawrence wrote them A discussion of the history of each essay is provided and several incomplete and unpublished essays are reproduced in an appendix
