

“This Could Be Heaven and This Could Be Hell”

The question of what happens to us after we die has plagued humanity throughout history. There are many different ideas, many different theories, about “what comes next” for us.

This assignment asks you to imagine that Heaven and Hell are not only real, but individual to each of us. In this expository essay, your task is describe how your own personal Heaven OR your own unique Hell would look, feel, and function.

The description of your Heaven or Hell should detail how this place would appeal to (or, in the case of Hell, how it would assault) your senses – what would it look, sound, smell, taste, feel like? How would it engage (or dull/torment) your emotions? How would it stimulate (or dull/frustrate) your intellect and satisfy (or offend) your morals and values? How would you spend your days there? What people, objects and activities would be central in your Heaven or Hell, and which would be forbidden? Most importantly, what about this place would make it uniquely yours – why would it not have the same value or impact on or for other people?

The point of this piece of expository writing is to see how vividly you can imagine and describe your own ideas of absolute perfection, and complete and utter torture, in a relatively short amount of space.

These assignments must be 2-3 typed pages* long and are due in class on:

Periods 1 & 8	-	Tuesday, October 13 th
Period 4	-	Wednesday, October 14 th

Please see Mr.Blum or Ms. Lambert early and often with questions.
