Esguerra, 2022-10-12 A seemingly simple protection job alerts the existence of a shadowy conspiracy The year is 2030 The world is divided into supernational unions yet they don't control all nation states inviting an acceptable quantity of wars for mercenaries to find This was the result of an alien ship crashing into the Democratic Republic of Afghanistan in the year 1985 with the supernational unions born from a world war from 1989 to 1991 that saw the use of nuclear weapons The mercenary group Iron Dutchman Services after another pay cut due to the damage wrought from their last job takes up a job offer from the Foreign Intelligence Service of the New United Nations to go to Japan to secretly protect Maria Hoshikawa a teenage corporate heiress One member Tarou Ganji seventeen years old uses this job as an opportunity to figure out his past as Maria has a similar upbringing growing up in a country with different physical features from its inhabitants The risk comes in acting like a normal teenager something Tarou never learned to do as he learned how to use a gun at the age of ten However shadowy forces intend on using Maria for their own ends They employ a man that made Tarou what he is today to kidnap her having him work with the OVR foreign intelligence agency of the Eurasian Tsardom This will complicate Tarou's mission as many now have an interest with a teenage girl putting the fate of the world at risk

The Algerian War in French-Language Comics Jennifer Howell, 2015-10-08 The decolonization of Algeria represents a turning point in world history marking the end of France's colonial empire the birth of the Algerian republic and the appearance of the Third World and pan Arabism Algeria emerged from colonial domination to negotiate the release of American hostages in Iran during the Carter administration Radical Islam would later rise from the ashes of Algeria's failed democracy leading to a civil war and the training of Algerian terrorists in Afghanistan Moreover the decolonization of Algeria offered an imperfect model of decolonization to other nations like South Africa that succeeded in abolishing apartheid while retaining its white settler population Algeria and its war of national liberation therefore constitute an inescapable reference for those looking to understand today's war on terror and ever expanding islamophobia in Western media circuits Consequently it is imperative that students and educators understand the global implications of the Algerian War and how to best approach this conflict in school and at home so as to learn from the consequences of misrepresentation at all levels of the memory transmission chain These objectives are all the more important today given the West's misunderstanding and mischaracterization of Islam the Arab Spring the Muslim majority world and most importantly the continuing influence of French colonialism especially in the postcolonial era Conceived as a case study The Algerian War in French Language Comics Postcolonial Memory History and Subjectivity argues that comics provide an alternative to textbook representations of the Algerian War in France because they draw from many of the same source materials yet produce narratives that are significantly different This book demonstrates that although comics rely on conventional vectors of memory transmission like national education the family and mainstream media they can also create new and productive dialogues using these same vectors in ways unavailable to traditional textbooks From this perspective these comics are an effective and alternative way to develop a more inclusive social consciousness

Cinema and the Algerian War of Independence Ahmed Bedjaoui, 2020-03-25 The book examines the war of images between France and Algeria Discussing the role of the United States during the war it covers topics such the presence of American reporters in Algeria John F Kennedy's support for Algerian independence while a senator the broadcasting of documentaries on the Algerian war on public television and reporting in the press Even half a century after Algerian independence there remains a need for both film and literature on the war from both sides of the Mediterranean This might seem surprising particularly to media professionals given the quantity of output on the subject but both French and Algerian portrayals of the war remain flawed and shackled to their respective ideologies The generation of FLN leaders recognized early on the importance of images and established a clandestine film structure that would bring the Algerian cause to the world stage The book offers an insightful and timely contribution not just to the field of North African studies but also to other disciplines such as film and media studies anthropology history journalism and political science Providing a rich source of research topics and viable ideas for film and documentary projects it is a must read for students scholars and media professionals alike

Fear and Faith in Paradise Phil Karber, 2012 From life along the Tigris River in the 1970s to the ongoing Arab Spring uprisings Phil Karber has witnessed decades of change throughout the Middle East Fear and Faith in Paradise draws on his wealth of experience to sketch a timely and compelling portrait of the region throughout history Going beyond the endless images of terrorism and war he challenges pervasive stereotypes of Muslims and delves into the living history and cultures of Arabs Turks Kurds Persians Jews Tunisians Moroccans Armenians and others Seamlessly moving between past and present Karber skillfully develops two overarching themes How America's footprint can be shifted from a military to a humanitarian emphasis and how fear is used as a cudgel by today's monotheistic leaders to sacrifice the faithful Whether Christian Muslim or Jewish they all invoke their own vision of paradise often as incentive in hopeless conflicts that seem doomed to be repeated Karber's down to earth writing vividly conveys the region's charm and beauty against a backdrop of power struggles among competing faiths nationalisms and outside forces
