

What Was the Driving Force Behind European Imperialism in Africa?

Throughout the 19th and early 20th centuries, European nations fought for colonies, gold, and ivory. Together they created Africa, but their primary goal was not the continent, for by 1875 the competing European powers pushed their way into the continent, not to control it. By the 1880s Africa was taken to pieces by rival powers, which completed with one another the conquest of the continent. This story is told in the great historical work, The Scramble for Africa, by John H. Coatsworth.
