

A dramatic sunset scene over the ocean. The sky is a deep, vibrant red and orange, with wispy clouds catching the low light. The horizon line is visible in the middle of the frame. In the foreground, the dark silhouette of a beach or dune is visible, with two small figures of people standing together, looking out at the sea.

Lewis,2012-09-25 This book is a self help book for men but women will probably read it too Women are so smart they want to know whatever they can about themselves But this piece is written in a simple and easy format No big words It is my hope that this book helps a man to better be able to know what his woman wants By him knowing what his woman wants he can provide it for her or at least understand why she wants it What Do You Really Want? Cayla Craft,2024-03-05 Don t settle for less in your life Unlock a new way of thinking that can transform your world and help you achieve the life you ve been longing for In What Do You Really Want successful entrepreneur and life coach Cayla Craft reveals seven questions that can unlock a new paradigm for dreaming envisioning and activating the life story you want to live Has it ever felt like your life hasn t turned out quite like you thought it would Maybe you have a sense something isn t working but you can t figure out what We all want to experience greater joy peace and love in our lives We all want to find our true purpose and live an abundant life But to do that we first have to ask ourselves a few questions and get to know someone who we might be unconsciously allowing to drive our lives our younger selves Cayla Craft was working as an ER nurse when she realized that it wasn t what she really wanted As she started getting honest with herself and answering some tough questions she realized that she was unconsciously believing a lot of unhelpful narratives about herself that were influencing her everyday life This realization led to her quitting her day job and developing the Take 7 approach to personal growth and fulfillment that has helped thousands of women live their best lives Only when she took charge of her life s narrative and the stories she was telling herself did she find the life of her dreams In What Do You Really Want Cayla guides you through the seven questions that can change everything What s not working for me in my life When did I first start accepting that What little me is showing up right now What is a better way of looking at this Where is there space for gratitude in this What do I really want What is the best next step for me What Do You Really Want will show you how to Eliminate areas of self sabotage by learning how to take control of your narrative Find the courage to identify and make the necessary sacrifices to create the life you were made for Replace a cycle of toxic positivity with action that comes from a place of truth and self knowledge When you learn to use this self coaching method you ll discover the more enriching deeply fulfilled life that God intended you to have What Do You Really Want goes beyond current explanations about how narratives shape us and helps you discover the questions you should be asking so you can use those answers to inspire a transformation in your life and the lives of others Fumbling in the Dark Chad Gillies,2011-06-01 DescriptionIt took me 33 years to figure out that I was mentally ill yes that is my whole life I can t put my finger on the name of the disease I have but it wasn t until recently that I admitted to myself that without a doubt I am absolutely depressed dysfunctional angry or just plain mad

From about the time I was five years old I started a process to deny my dysfunction The personality traits in my head would help me to avoid dealing with my problems by making everything on a grand scale the gods were running a muck and that was keeping me in denial It was feast or famine total happiness or complete hate flowing through me There was no balance Then by the time I was a teen I started to drink my fears away and hide in my dysfunction that way I got by on my charming personality until I married and found that my anger was even making its way through the booze So I quit drinking at gun point I thought that would solve all my problems Well it turned out that I was drinking because I was hiding from the anger not that I was getting angry about my drinking I was miserable so I started looking at why I was so miserable I went off on a spiritual way of life it was fantastic It gave me a healthy means to avoid admitting that I was sick There was no creation in my life I was dominated by fear and I started to work my way out of it The more I worked on myself the more I realized that I needed to write it was like alchemy the more of my feelings I got out on paper the better I felt Finally I was able to admit that I truly am mentally ill and nothing I could do would fix it until I admitted it and then started to transform it by writing My poetry is really just my feelings that are spewing up from that which has been deprived to long No magic no shine just words from my intimate self

About the Author Chad Gillies was born in Red Deer Alberta May 09 1975 His father passed just 5 short years later causing an avalanche of dysfunction to be thrust upon the youngster He grew up in a home where fur coats were sometimes more important than food And liquor was easier than feeling He was always loud and somewhat charismatic and quite rebellious With all that going for him he found it very easy to fit into all the wrong circles Two short years later he found himself with a new step father Always trying his best he looked for the approval of both his parents He was desperate he played their sports he ate their food he watched their shows and he did their chores He tried it all but he was miserable And nothing seemed to work As a teenager he found acceptance in a group of friends that had little in common The mutual thread they shared was each of their parents had absolutely no idea of who their kids really were They became tight They always stuck together and they bonded in beautiful dysfunction together Hiding from their pain they used drugs and alcohol on a near daily basis throughout middle and high school They learned to beg borrow and steal to fund their habits Chad did time in a juvenile detention centre which they say was easy time But of course he did not fit in there either Plagued with a quick temper and a completely different point of view he learned to use his humor to survive Chad went on the straight and narrow for a while except of course for the alcohol and drugs which sent him into a swirling depression and he nearly paid for it with his life In a state of complete desperation he attempted to end his life not once but twice His second attempt left him near death and unconscious for nearly 4 days When he awoke he was surrounded by the staff of a physician that quite simply did not understand the boy They again enabled Chad with more drugs so he could avoid feeling Chad was starting to feel well but felt he needed to get some things off his chest He confessed his whole life to Tammy in an attempt to lift his burden She could not handle all
