this book probes the almost universal adoption and zealous defence of leniency policies by many competition authorities and others. It charts the origins of and impetuses for the leniency movement, captures key insights from academic research and practical experience relating to the operation and effectiveness of leniency policies and examines leniency from the perspectives of corporate and individual applicants, advisers and authorities. The book also explores debates surrounding the intersections between leniency and other crucial elements of the enforcement system such as compensation, compliance and criminalisation. The rich critical analysis in the book draws on the disciplines of law, regulation, economics and criminology. It makes a substantial and distinctive contribution to the literature on a topic that is highly significant to a wide range of actors in the field of competition law and business regulation generally. From the Foreword by Professor Frédéric Jenny, fundamental questions are raised and thoroughly discussed in this book, which is undoubtedly the most comprehensive scholarly work on leniency policies produced so far. The book should be required reading for all seeking to acquire a deeper insight into the issues related to leniency policy. It is a priceless contribution.

Increasingly we hear of more and more elders falling victim to financial exploitation. Although this form of elder abuse has been recognized for years, its incidence, prevalence and impact on the common individual has been only more recently brought to the spotlight. Despite these circumstances, recognition of risk factors and indicators of financial exploitation are not widely disseminated. Additionally, once situations are identified and confronted, the knowledge of what to do next is lacking. These gaps are present within the medical, community law enforcement and the finance community areas where opportunities for recognition and intervention are common. Our elders often have no idea of what to do when they see their own risk or when they fall victim.

Aging and Money: Reducing Risk of Financial Exploitation and Protecting Financial Resources helps clinicians to integrate identification of such indicators of abuse into their geriatric assessment as well as guide them in performing an assessment of an individual's financial decision-making capacity when appropriate. Aging and Money: Reducing Risk of Financial Exploitation and Protecting Financial Resources is an essential new text that provides the practicing clinician with information on identifying risk factors and clinical clues associated with financial exploitation and how to incorporate these steps into their practice.

Financial Literacy and Ageing in Developing Economies Kshipra Jain, 2023-05-09

This book weaves together current understanding around financial literacy and ageing, arguing for the relevance of financial literacy for old age security. Building upon the experiences of ten developing Asian economies with a focus on India, the book enters new territory by developing frameworks that identify predictors of financial literacy and a mechanism for its internalization, as well as recognising the need for specialized training programs for the older population in order to establish a link between financial literacy and old age security It thus makes a case about the centrality of financial literacy in creating an environment conducive to a dignified ageing experience in this world of shouldering one's own responsibility Going forward the book comprehends financial literacy for India as a skill which enables an individual to decide the suitable avenues to invest savings utilize monetary resources and shape financial decisions aligned with their financial goals in accordance with the dynamic financial economic environment This original volume is a first time attempt to provide an in depth account of financial literacy and its association with savings behavior old age planning wealth accumulation healthcare and wellbeing in older age It also provides a detailed account of various measurement tools used and policy initiatives undertaken across the globe for financial literacy It is an indispensable reference guide for scholars and researchers cutting across multiple disciplines particularly financial and development economics gerontology demography social work psychology and public policy
