

Title:

The character of a Man: Style in Hemmingway's The Old Man and the Sea

Introduction:

Ernest Hemingway is a U.S writer that is widely considered as one of the most relevant stylists in American Literature. His writing is characterized by an objective and terse prose style, with language that is simple on the surface, but deliberate in actuality.

His terse, disciplined approach to writing occasioned a lot of comment and controversy and made him one of the most dramatic writers of the 20th century. The Old Man and the Sea, widely regarded as Hemmingway's masterpiece, reflects his unique writing style, and deals with the theme of narrating great ethical challenges. (Thesis statement)
