What Is Biography And Autobiography:

Interpreting the Self Diane Bjorklund, 1998 How do ways of explaining one's life vary over time Although anthropologists have found intriguing cultural differences in how people interpret the self there has been little extended work exploring historical variations In this study sociologist Diane Bjorklund remedies this gap by exploring the historical nature of self narrative Examining over 100 American autobiographies published in the last two centuries she discusses not only well known autobiographers such as Mark Twain and Andrew Carnegie but also many obscure ones such as a traveling book peddler a minstrel a hotel proprietress an itinerant preacher a West Point cadet and a hoopskirt wire manufacturer

Autobiography James Olney, 2014-07-14 Professor Olney gathers together in this book some of the best and most important writings on autobiography produced in the past two decades Originally published in 1980 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
