Shame on You Melissa Petro,2024-09-10 In the spirit of Rebecca Traister's Good and Mad and Roxane Gay's Bad Feminist comes a courageous in depth investigation into the modern epidemic of shame in our society what it is why women are uniquely susceptible and how we can shift the shame off our plates and live our best lives in an over exposed image obsessed world For millions of women shame is a vicious predator It tells us we are less than that we are unworthy We try everything to escape shame ignoring it intellectualizing it and even ironically shaming ourselves for feeling it The reality is that women experience shame more frequently and more intensely than men a direct result as acclaimed journalist Melissa Petro explains of a patriarchal culture that urges women to feel bad about themselves and then punishes them when they do Why can't we figure out how to break the shame cycle once and for all In Shame on You Petro takes on the issue of women's shame directly with an unflinching look at the social systems that encourage women to believe we are deeply inadequate From shame's beginnings Maybe she's born with it Nope it's misogyny to its effect on our lives as adults How the humiliation of bad women affects us all shame poisons our friendships romantic relationships and work lives But it doesn't have to be that way Blending investigative reporting science literature and hundreds of women's personal stories including her own shameful account of winding up as an unwitting New York Post cover girl Petro offers us a new way forward No matter what you do she explains there is no escaping being judged And yet the women we can become sometimes as a consequence of shame rather than in spite of it are powerful indeed And maybe that's what others are afraid of

Chocolate Cows and Purple Cheese Tom Hernandez,2009-04 LIFE IS RARELY AS BLACK AND WHITE AS IT SEEMS Real life not reality television life is lived on the homefront that area of 1 000 shades of gray stretching from the dinner table to the workplace and everywhere in between colored by joy sadness certainty doubt conflict and communion As individuals citizens parents spouses siblings family and community members we wonder what to think and do about the issues that life presents day to day sometimes even minute to minute Then we wonder again if what we thought and did was really the right thing And so it goes This mental spiritual emotional and social tug of war can be at turns funny frustrating and fulfilling But it is never dull Chocolate Cows and Purple

Cheese is a collection of essays written by a typical suburban husband and father delving into life in all of its myriad facets. These essays reflect on topics like aging, politics and patriotism, the adventures and challenges of parenting, marriage, death, faith and religion, and family life with a sense of honesty, candid exploration, wit, exasperation, and even a slight hint of appreciation for the daily grind we all endure and if we are really lucky, survive with a smile. *Proceedings of the ... The study described in this book is a qualitative phenomenological research study whose objective was to reveal the writer's identity of teacher educators in academia and to discover how they express this identity in their teaching practice. Twenty-three academic scholars were interviewed for the study. The research findings indicate that the identity of the writer is complex, incorporating three interwoven aspects: a cognitive aspect, an emotional aspect, and a sociocultural aspect. The cognitive aspect finds expression in the writer's awareness and understanding of the medium of writing, which explicitly and openly entails the production of ideas while writing. This process is fundamentally rhizomatic in that it moves in different directions each time, beginning anew from a different point and is ultimately geared toward a multidirectional and multilayered product. The emotional aspect in the writer's life is somewhat mystical in nature. It is a medium that surrounds writers at all times and enables them to find their voice and their place in the world. The writing workspace is perceived as part of this aspect. It is a sanctuary that provides inspiration, is designed according to the writer's needs, and shapes the writing. The sociocultural aspect shapes the identity of the writer and highlights social mirroring as part of the writer's positioning in life and in the professional community. Intended audience: This book is aimed at the community of researchers in the writing domain. It is also of interest to academic scholars in higher education who perceive writing as part of their personal and academic identity. Qualitative researchers will find interest in the research method and the relations between qualitative genres among them: phenomenological and narrative genres. *Transactions of the National Safety Council ...
