Artificial Intelligence and Human Rights Law in Africa Aderomola Adeola,2025-09-29 This book examines artificial intelligence AI in Africa from a rights based perspective In recent years technology has emerged as a significant disruptor with AI robotics and computer advancement in particular driving changes in societies around the world There are evident and daunting implications across contexts and continents and many countries are rapidly seeking to define patterns of solutions that can foster effective protection against the more challenging impacts of AI This book considers the consequences of AI for civil and political rights social economic and cultural rights and collective rights in Africa with particular reference to the African Charter It considers how AI risks violating the rights enshrined in the Charter and considers how the norms outlined in the African Charter can provide the basis for a response Overall this book examines how a rights based approach to AI can be realized emphasising the imperatives for steering implementation Providing an important guide for strategic action for the protection of human rights in the context of AI this book will be an important read for researchers policymakers and students in the fields of human rights and technology in Africa Inequality Around the World Deric Shannon,2025 This authoritative two volume set explores and explains the extent and roots of socioeconomic inequality both within and across nations Both volumes focus on examining factors that shape the dimensions and impact of those disparities Climate Change and Socio-political Violence in Sub-Saharan Africa in the Anthropocene Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala,Norman Chivasa,2024-05-04 This book explores the theoretical contribution of peace ecology to the understanding and practice of environmental and conventional peacebuilding It integrates environmental questions and factors that drive socio political violence and climate change induced violence in Sub Saharan Africa in the Anthropocene It demonstrates how international peace and global security are no longer solely grounded in conventional peacebuilding that has evolved from liberal to democratic peace theories but rather in the complex critical and synergic relations between peace studies and environmental studies It provides a pluridisciplinary body of knowledge that emphasises the need for food security social climate social good social capital and sustainable development at the age of climate change and climate wars It underscores the potential of peace ecology to reduce the Earth systems vulnerability to mitigate anthropogenic global warming s consequences on humanity the ecosystem and biodiversity It yields various models of peacebuilding conflict sensitive and climate sensitive adaptation strategies to enhance the African Region s security and stability Finally this volume argues that planetary boundaries framework remains the safer space within which human and sustainable development can be pursued and attained and future generations to thrive A comprehensive and international response to socio political violence and climate change induced violence should take into account the vulnerability of individual countries regions and the global world in order to achieve the dreams of a better future that makes this book a cutting edge scholarly work

Madrid Yearly Review 2016 World Intellectual Property Organization,2016 Comprehensive facts figures and analysis of the international registration of marks Strategic Communications in Africa Hugh Mangeya,Isaac Mhute,Ernest Jakaza,2021-12-24 Strategic communication is a pre requisite for the achievement of organisational goals and an effective strategic communication plan is vital for organisational success However systems and models dominant in the West may not necessarily be best suited for the sub Saharan Africa reality where many organisations lack adequate financial resources to develop and implement an effective strategic communication plan This book examines current practices in sub Saharan Africa as well as the challenges faced and the intersection with culture It packages inspiring debates experiences and insights relating to strategic communication in all types of institutions including private and public sector organisations governmental organisations and NGOs political parties as well as social movements in the sub Saharan context It explores how culture is integral to the attainment of strategic communication goals and diverse case studies across socio economic contexts offer insights into the successes of organisations across Africa including Zimbabwe Tanzania Lesotho and Nigeria This unique edited collection is a valuable resource for worldwide scholars researchers and students of strategic communication and organisational studies as well as related fields including public relations advertising political and health communication and international studies Schreuer's Commentary on the ICSID Convention Stephan W.

Schill,Loretta Malintoppi,August Reinisch,Christoph H. Schreuer,Anthony Sinclair,2022-09-14 This unique compendium offers an article by article commentary on the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States Providing a comprehensive explanation of the functioning of this important mechanism for the settlement of investor State disputes it incorporates the preparatory work the Convention s text various rules and regulations adopted under the Convention the practice of arbitral tribunals under the Convention and academic writings on the subject The first and second editions of this Commentary have been relied upon by numerous arbitral tribunals This third edition follows the same system and approach but extensive updates and revisions reflect the vast increase in arbitral practice since the publication of the second edition A number of novel issues that have emerged through this practice are now addressed making this practice oriented guide an indispensable tool for anyone dealing with the ICSID Convention Likewise the number of contributors to and editors of the third edition has increased Perspectives on the State Borders in Globalized Africa

Yuichi Sasaoka,Aimé Raoul Sumo Tayo,Sayoko Uesu,2022-02-25 Assessing the different kinds of borders between African nations the contributors present a borderland and trans region approach to understanding the challenges and opportunities facing the peoples of the African continent Africa faces rampant violence terrorism deterioration of water energy food provision influxes of refugees and immigrants and religious hatred under the trends of globalization Solutions for these issues require new perspectives that are not attempted by conventional state building approaches Statehood is limited in many places on the African continent because many states are combined by loose political ties African states borders tend to be regarded as porous and fragile However as the contributors to this volume argue those porous borders can contribute to cultural and socio economic network construction beyond states and the creation of active borderlands by increasing people s mobility contact and trade A must read for scholars of African studies that will also be of great value to academics and students with a broader interest in nationhood globalization and borders
