

How to Write a Movie Review:

The Five Parts of a Movie Review

Part #1 - Intro (1 short paragraph)

Catch the Reader's Attention - If you liked the movie, then your "Intro" should make people want to see it; but if you didn't like it, the "Intro" should be something that shows why you didn't like it. This lays the foundation of your review.

Intro Examples:

Comparison: (Talladega Nights) is like (Days of Thunder) meets (Dodgeball). The adrenaline filled races are complemented by endless, over the top, sidesplitting antics. You'll bust a gut...and wanna go fast!

Relation: If you like movies that grab you by the throat and put you through the wringer then Vacancy is for you. It will keep you in suspense from start to finish. One of the smartest, yet scariest thriller movies in years.

Scenario: A couple checking into a desolate motel when their car breaks down is to horror films as "knock-knock" is to stand-up comics: it must have one amazing punch line to be any good. Vacancy is the equivalent of the "chicken crossing the road" - we've heard/seen it a million times.

Part #2 - Summary (1 - 2 paragraphs)

Recap briefly, but don't give away anything big. You should give them the basic plot points, and tell them how the story builds, but don't give away key moments, especially not the ending! And keep it brief.

A Short Guide to Writing about Film Timothy Corrigan, 2024-08-09 A Short Guide to Writing about Film continues to be the definitive resource for introducing students to film study unlocking the art of film criticism with concise insights about the essentials of writing The text introduces key film terminology equipping students with the tools they need to craft thoughtful and critical essays Featuring an array of student and professional examples Corrigan takes readers on a journey from initial analysis and drafting to the creation of polished essays With an engaging style he demonstrates how film analysis can transform into a nuanced and rigorous compositional process Perfect for both beginners and seasoned writers this textbook is your gateway to mastering the language of film How to Write a Movie Review Noah Ras, 2015-10-30 The study guide has many excellent essays and examples on Invention and Outline Examples Analysis of Persuasion in Advertising Example Field Based Solutions arguments and conclusions based on interviews and observations APA Research Paper An Argumentative Paper Taking a Position on an Issue Chicago Manual CM Research Paper An essay to nominate a film Why should your chosen film be the one shown Critical Book Review Writing in Film Studies, from Professional Practice to Practical Pedagogy Bryan Mead, 2024-01-09 A common refrain heard from instructors in offices across the world is that students have a hard time producing quality written discourse This is no different in the world of film studies where many undergraduate students struggle to cogently discuss the films they watch in class How can film instructors help students become better writers This book answers this question by first uncovering the disciplinary expectations we have for students and then offering strategies to explicitly teach those expectations in the classroom This book examines and identifies the disciplinary conventions of professional film studies discourse along with the expectations we have for student writing in undergraduate film courses What becomes clear from this analysis is that the pedagogical expectations we have for students are aligned with and shaped by professional writing in the discipline It helps to uncover the argument types instructors take for granted and helps those teaching undergraduate students not only to know what those expectations are but also how to use that knowledge to foster better student writing Analyzing Literature-to-Film Adaptations Mary H. Snyder, 2011-01-20 The majority of scholarly treatments for film adaptation are put forth by experts on film and film analysis thus with the focus being on film Analyzing Literature to Film Adaptations looks at film adaptation from a fresh perspective that of writer or creator of literary fiction In her book Snyder explores both literature and film as separate entities detailing the analytical process of interpreting novels and short stories as well as films She then introduces a means to analyzing literature to film adaptations drawing from the concept of intertextual comparison Snyder writes not only from the perspective of a fiction writer but also as an instructor of writing literature and film adaptation She employs the use of specific film adaptations Frankenstein Children of Men Away from Her to show the analytical process put into practice Her approach to film adaptation is designed for students just beginning their academic journey but also for those students well on their way The book also is written for high school and college instructors who teach film adaptations in the classroom A Short Guide to Writing about Film Timothy Corrigan, 2015 This best selling text is a succinct guide to thinking critically and writing precisely about film Both an introduction to film study and a practical writing guide this brief text introduces students to major film theories as well as film terminology enabling them to write more thoughtfully and critically With numerous student and professional examples this engaging and practical guide progresses from taking notes and writing first drafts to creating polished essays and comprehensive research projects Moving from movie reviews to theoretical and critical essays the text demonstrates how an analysis of a film can become more subtle and rigorous as part of a compositional process Teaching Second Language Writing Charlene Polio, 2016-08-05 This module explores the purposes of and methods for teaching second language writing Engaging and accessible Teaching Second Language Writing is organized into three sections that mainly focus on activities approaches and real life writing tasks and genres that are the most applicable and useful for the language teaching classroom The Routledge E Book Modules on Contemporary Language Teaching introduce students to the major areas of second language instruction through jargon free style and explain concepts as they are introduced thus facilitating comprehension for those with little or no background The series consists of independent modules that can stand alone or be combined at the discretion of the reader or instructor The modules can also be used as supplements to existing materials for maximum flexibility Modules in this series include Language Bill VanPatten Communication and Skill Bill VanPatten Second Language Acquisition The Basics Gregory D Keating Focusing on Form in Language Instruction Wynne Wong and Daphn e Simard Vocabulary in Language Teaching Joe Barcroft Interactive Tasks Michael J Leeser and Justin P White Technology in Language Learning An Overview Bryan Smith Teaching Second Language Writing Charlene Polio Readers have the option to select and download electronically the 40 50 page modules for individual use or to purchase multiple modules at once With each module written by an expert in that respective field with self quizzes reflection boxes recommended readings and discussion questions these modules serve as the ideal text for introductory courses in Second Language Instruction To purchase these modules and view module summaries please visit the series companion website www.routledgetextbooks.com/textbooks/9781315679594 Short Guide to Writing about Film, Global Edition Timothy Corrigan, 2014-09-16 This best selling text is a succinct guide to thinking critically and writing precisely about film Both an introduction to film study and a practical writing guide this brief text introduces students to major film theories as well as film terminology enabling them to write more thoughtfully and critically With numerous student and professional examples this engaging and practical guide progresses from taking notes and writing first drafts to creating polished essays and comprehensive research projects Moving from movie reviews to theoretical and critical essays the text demonstrates how an analysis of a film can become more subtle and rigorous as part of a compositional process

With Literacy and Justice for All Carole Edelsky, 2006 The third edition of With Literacy and Justice for All Rethinking

the Social in Language and Education continues to document Carole Edelsky's long involvement with socially critical holistic approaches to the everyday problems and possibilities facing teachers of language and literacy. This book helps education professionals understand the educational societal situations they are dealing with and literacy instruction and second language learning in particular contexts. Edelsky does not offer simplistic pedagogical formulas but rather progressively works through differences and tensions in the discourses and practices of sociolinguistics, bilingual education, whole language and critical pedagogy fields whose practitioners and advocates too often work in isolation from each other and at times at cross purposes. In this edition, what Edelsky means by rethinking is improving and extending her own views while at the same time demonstrating that such rethinking always occurs in the light of history. The volume includes a completely new Introduction and two entirely new chapters: one on reconceptualizing literacy learning as second language learning and another on taking a historical view of responses to standardized testing. Throughout in updating the volume, Edelsky uses a variety of structural styles to note contrasts in her views across time and to make the distinction clear between the original material and the current additions. This edition is a rare example of a scholar owning up to changes in thinking and a much needed demonstration of the historically grounded nature of knowledge. As a whole, the third edition emphasizes recursiveness and questioning within a deliberately political framework. Strategies for Writing Successful Essays McGraw Hill, 1998-01-01. This book will help you master the writing process and apply it in a variety of writing situations. You will learn that prewriting, drafting, and revising are key steps no matter what type of essay you are assigned. Film on Paper

Richard Schickel, 2008. Presents essay reprints from Richard Schickel's The Los Angeles Times Book Review intended as a review of books about the movie industry but instead comments about different groups of players within the industry.

Internet Activities for Language Arts Mari Lu Robbins, 1999. The Contemporary Reader Gary Goshgarian, 2002. A best selling book now in its Seventh Edition. The Contemporary Reader offers highly engaging readings about current cultural issues. This accessible, wide-ranging and current essay collection is designed to stimulate and thought-provoking. The Contemporary Reader has more contemporary selections than any other popular culture reader on the market. Over 90% of the readings have been written in the last five years. The text's ten tightly focused thematic chapters cover a range of writing on interesting issues familiar to students and relevant to our times. Readings are organized around a variety of provocative and engaging themes such as Fashion and Flesh, The Images We Project, Gender Battles on the Big Screen, Young and Criminal Advertising, Wanting It, Selling It, and these new focused themes: Humans Inc., Rethinking and Retailing, Reproduction, It's a Wide Web World, Sports Not Just a Game, Generation Gaps, Boomers, Xers and Y. These thematic chapters are tightly focused and offer a range of perspectives on issues. To expand on the well-regarded section on critical reading, a review of the writing process has been added to the introduction. This includes coverage of pre-writing, audience awareness, developing a thesis, documenting sources, drafting, editing, revising, and proofreading. MARKET For those interested in gaining an
