Huber and Headrick's Handwriting Identification Heidi H. Harralson, Larry S. Miller, 2017-12-14 Forensic document examination is the study of physical evidence, and physical evidence cannot lie. Only its interpretation can err. Only the failure to find it or to hear its true testimony can deprive it of its value. Roy Huber. This is a comprehensive update of Huber and Headrick's seminal work on handwriting examination. New coverage includes a review of forensic handwriting examination, research, handwriting analysis, training, and proficiency, revised methods and procedures, an updated listing and clarification of terminology, and electronic signatures, the analysis of digitized handwriting, and other related technological advances. The book includes updated photographs, several added illustrations, and advances in techniques based on the scientific research conducted in the area over the last 20 years. Features of the new edition include: The latest on electronic signatures, digital handwriting, automated handwriting verification, and the many advances in technology and research over the last two decades. An overview of the fundamentals of handwriting examination with updated discussion of the intrinsic and extrinsic variables associated with handwriting identification. A review of the criticism of handwriting expert opinions and methodology, addressing both the strengths and scientific limitations of the area.
