Aging with a Plan Sharona Hoffman, 2015-05-12. This book offers a concise comprehensive resource for middle aged readers who are facing the prospects of their own aging and of caring for elderly relatives, an often overwhelming task for which little in life prepares us. Everyone ages and nearly everyone will also experience having to support aging relatives. Being prepared is the best way to handle this inevitable life stage. This book addresses a breadth of topics that are relevant to aging and caring for the elderly, analyzing each thoroughly and providing up to date practical advice. It can serve as a concise and comprehensive resource, read start to finish to plan for an individual's own old age or to anticipate the needs of aging relatives or as a quick reference guide on specific issues and topics as relevant to each reader's situation and needs. Using an interdisciplinary approach, Aging with a Plan: How a Little Thought Today Can Vastly Improve Your Tomorrow develops recommendations for building sustainable social, legal, medical and financial support systems that can promote a good quality of life throughout the aging process. Chapters address critical topics such as retirement savings and expenses, residential settings, legal planning, the elderly and driving, long term care and end of life decisions. The author combines analysis of recent research on the challenges of aging with engaging anecdotes and personal observations. By following the recommendations in this book readers in their 40s 50s and early 60s will greatly benefit from learning about the issues regarding aging in the 21st century and from investing some effort in planning for their old age and that of their loved ones
