Routledge Library Editions: Special Educational Needs Various, 2021-07-29 This set of 62 volumes originally published between 1951 and 1999 amalgamates a wide breadth of literature on Special Educational Needs with a particular focus on inclusivity class management and curriculum theory This collection of books from some of the leading scholars in the field provides a comprehensive overview of the subject how it has evolved over time and will be of particular interest to students of Education and those undertaking teaching qualifications

Learner Identity and Learner Beliefs in EFL Writing Olga Majchrzak, 2017-12-21 This book focuses on the concept of learner writer identity in the context of foreign language writing The author demonstrates that the process of writing in a foreign language is much more complex and personal than many writing instructors may assume The book's theoretical chapters address such concepts as bilingualism the process of L2 writing and identity in L2 writing The book's empirical section discusses the students' views on writing in L1 and in L2 the students' writing processes in both languages and the students' identities in L1 and L2 writing It is shown that writing in L2 poses problems of a linguistic nature however for the advanced EFL learners writing in L2 also creates opportunities they would never have when composing in their mother tongue

Routledge Library Editions: Curriculum

Various, 2021-07-09 Reissuing works originally published between 1971 and 1994 this collection includes books which offer a broad spectrum of views on curriculum both within individual schools and the wider issues around curriculum development reform and implementation Some cover the debate surrounding the establishment of the national curriculum in the UK while others are more international in scope Many of these books go beyond theory to discuss practical issues of real curriculum changes at primary or secondary level The Set includes books on cross-curricular topics such as citizenship and environment and also guidance careers life skills and pastoral care in schools A fantastic collection of education history with much still relevant today

Hybrid Englishes and the Challenges of and for Translation Karen Bennett, Rita Queiroz de Barros, 2019-03-13 This volume problematizes the concept and practice of translation in an interconnected world in which English despite its hegemonic status can no longer be considered a coherent unified entity but rather a mobile resource subject to various kinds of hybridization Drawing upon recent work in the domains of translation studies literary studies and socio-linguistics it explores the centrality of translation as both a trope for the analysis of contemporary transcultural dynamics and as a concrete communication practice in the globalized world The chapters range across many geographic realities and genres including fiction memoir animated film and hip hop and deal with subjects as varied as self-translation translational ethics and language change As a whole the book makes an important contribution to our understanding of how meanings are generated and relayed in a context of super-diversity in which traditional understandings of language and translation can no longer be sustained
