When Will Sandf Call For 2015:

Researching the Military Helena Carreiras, Celso Castro, Sabina Frederic, 2016-03-02 Researching the Military focuses on the experiences of researchers who study the military around the world. It explores the historical, social, institutional, and personal factors that frame research and scrutinize the way knowledge in this area impacts society and policy. More than merely analyzing research experiences yet necessarily including them, it is also about the experiences of researchers, their position with regard to the object of their studies, the institutional context where they work, and the way their research impacts the academic and policy making fields in the respective countries. The common theme to the various chapters is reflexivity, a conscious effort at addressing the conditions of research and the position of the researcher and the research participants in that interface. By collecting diverse experiences of researchers from across the world, this volume aims to enhance reflexivity in the field of military studies and to encourage the exchange of knowledge between the academic field and the military arena. This book will be of much interest to students of military studies, research methods, sociology, social anthropology, and security studies in general. SADC Gender Protocol 2015 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Dube, Sifiso, 2016-02-22 In August 2008 Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development. This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance. The SADC Gender Protocol is the only sub regional instrument that brings together existing global and continental commitments to gender equality and enhances these through time bound targets. Aligned to Millennium Development Goal Three, the original 28 targets of the Protocol targets expire in 2015. Now that 2015 is here we need to step back, assess and reposition. In June 2014 SADC Gender Ministers agreed to review the targets of the Gender Protocol in line with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). In May this year ministers added that they want the Protocol to be accompanied by a Monitoring, Evaluation and Results Framework. The 2015 Barometer shows that implementation is now the biggest missing gap in the quest for gender equality. Now is the time to strengthen, resolve, reconsider, reposition and re-strategise for 2030. SADC GENDER PROTOCOL BAROMETER 2015 2015 is here. equality Now is the time to strengthen resolve reconsider reposition and re strategise for 2030 Guns & Roses: Comparative Civil-Military Relations in the Changing Security Environment Steven Ratuva,Radomir Compel,Sergio Aguilar,2019-01-04 This edited volume provides a critical and comparative discussion of the changing synergy between the military and society in the dramatically transforming global security climate drawing on examples from the Asian Pacific African Middle Eastern European and South American regions The book is interdisciplinary and covers wide ranging issues relating to civil military relations democratization regional security ethnicity peace building and peace keeping civilian oversight internal repression gender regime change and civil society Military Operations in Response to Domestic Emergencies and Global Pandemics Lindy Heineken,Christian Leuprecht,2025-07-24 This open access book provides a comparative analysis of the deployment of the military in domestic operations the use of the armed forces during the COVID 19 pandemic and the impact of that deployment on civil military relations in 26 countries worldwide The book examines the legal and constitutional regulations under which the military can serve in domestic roles and the extent of domestic deployment before the COVID 19 pandemic It focuses on the roles in which the military served during the pandemic the resources available and the readiness and effectiveness of the military response The volume addresses whether or not the pandemic response was securitized the extent of civilian oversight and control the accountability measures in place and the impact of the COVID 19 deployment on the military s image The volume captures the lessons learnt from the COVID 19 deployment and the implications for future force design structure and organizational transformation Since almost all countries used their military in some capacity to respond to the COVID 19 pandemic this volume offers an opportunity to compare use of the armed forces to provide domestic humanitarian assistance and disaster response The Economics of Defense Industry Thomas-Durell Young,2023-10-17 This book on the economics of defence industry assesses a series of historical and contemporary case studies that consistently demonstrate the need for governments to recognise and thereafter factor the financial needs of a narrow industrial sector that is capital intensive technologically advanced and that requires a highly skilled labour force Since the end of the cold war Western governments have systematically reduced financial support to their domestic defence industry and have seemingly ignored planning and funding industrial mobilisation In all cases government policy has been to encourage industries to consolidate capacity to become financially viable in a sector that has seen diminished demand The 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine has caused Western governments to reassess their previous assumptions Efforts to increase industrial capacity have been met with the iron laws of economics whereby businesses need to show return on investments The chapters in this volume posit that efforts to rationalise industrial capacity and innovation to meet short term financial efficiencies inevitably results in limited expensive and long delays in increased production in times of international crisis This book serves as an essential guide for academics researchers and students interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations and industrial policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Defense Security Analysis

Reforming Civil-Military Relations in New Democracies

Aurel Croissant, David Kuehn, 2017-03-20 This book addresses the challenge of reforming defense and military policy making in newly democratized nations By tracing the development of civil military relations in various new democracies from a comparative perspective it links two bodies of scholarship that thus far have remained largely separate the study of emerging or failed civilian control over armed forces on the one hand and work on the roots and causes of military effectiveness to guarantee the protection and security of citizens on the other The empirical and theoretical findings presented here will appeal to scholars of civil military relations democratization and security issues as well as to defense policy makers

Values, Interests and Power: South African foreign policy in uncertain times Daniel D. Bradlow, Elizabeth Sidiropoulos, 2020-01-01 About the publication South Africa's foreign policy makers are facing a substantial challenge From the advent of the democratic era in 1994 through to the early 2000s South Africa was a highly respected actor in international affairs with a number of impressive accomplishments in the areas of global governance peacekeeping and international norm entrepreneurship However since that time the country's international standing has declined The value based and innovative foreign policy that earned the early post apartheid South African government such great international respect has been replaced by a more transactional and tactically driven approach to international affairs The country's position as Africa's leading economy and voice in international affairs is increasingly being challenged by other African states This book explores how South Africa can develop a foreign policy strategy that is appropriate to the uncertain times in which we live and that both helps the country address its overwhelming domestic challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment and regain its former high international reputation The contributors to this book offer analyses and proposals for developing such a strategy within the context of the country's constitutional order and institutional constraints and that addresses the diverse and complex global and regional aspects of the country's international relations Endorsements In this valuable book which should be on every diplomat's bookshelf some of SA's foremost experts offer the government frank and compelling advice on how to conduct a much better foreign policy over the next decade The authors challenge Pretoria to muster all the country's assets and skills and not just those of the ruling party to pursue only the most important foreign policy goals And to be guided always by the lodestar of the Constitution Peter Fabricius Foreign Policy Analyst former Foreign Affairs Editor at Independent Newspapers In this one of a kind book of twelve chapters by emerging and experienced scholars the authors probe into factors shaping South African foreign policy lessons learned and the future strategy of the country's foreign policy in an ever changing world A compelling read for policy makers and scholars Ambassador Prof Iqbal Jhazbhay University of South Africa Member of the ANC's N E C International Relations Sub Committee its breadth will engage newcomers its insights will be useful to scholars and practitioners alike Professor Amrita Narlikar President German Institute for Global and Area Studies GIGA This book offers compelling insights on South Africa's foreign policy These varied pieces provide textured and critical perspectives that may help open up an avenue to re imagine South Africa s foreign policy afresh in the post Zuma years It is a compendium that should appeal to scholars of international relations practitioners of foreign policy and the broader policy community Professor Mzukiso Qobo Head School of Governance University of the Witwatersrand This nuanced and richly detailed volume offers the reader superb analyses of South Africa s foreign policy The authors contributions present both theoretical considerations and specific policy recommendations which make the book highly useful for both scholars and policy makers Each chapter is thus certain to significantly contribute to promoting the public debate about South Africa s place in the world Professor Oliver Stuenkel Funda o Getulio Vargas FGV Table of Contents ACKNOWLEDGMENTS CONTRIBUTORS Defining a South African foreign policy for the 2020s Challenges constraints and opportunities by Daniel D Bradlow Elizabeth Sidiropoulos Luanda Mpungose Foreign policy under the Constitution by Jonathan Klaaren Daiyaan Halim The courts and foreign policy powers by Nicole Fritz Overcoming bureaucratic and institutional challenges in South African foreign policy making by Arina Muresan Francis Kornegay South Africa s security interests in Africa Recommendations for the 2020s by Aditi Lalbahadur Anthoni van Nieuwkerk South Africa s peace and security interests beyond the continent by Garth Le Pere Lisa Otto Regional integration and industrial development in Southern Africa Where does South Africa stand by Maria Nkhonjera Simon Roberts South Africa and African continental economic integration in the 2020s by Lumkile Mondi Negotiating climate change in an increasingly uncertain global landscape Is there light at the end of the tunnel by Ellen Davies Saliem Fakir Melisha Nagiah Reforming the institutions of global economic governance and South Africa by Cleo Rose Innes Challenges and opportunities for non traditional diplomacy by Fritz Nganje Letlhogonolo Letshele Lessons learned and the path forward by Daniel Bradlow Elizabeth Sidiropoulos AnaSofia Bizos APPENDIX INDEX

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heinecken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country s new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa s changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world
