A Perfect Match Karen Wiesner, 2019-11-30 At nearly 40, Dante Robinson has never been in a relationship that wasn't more than a one-night stand. His nephew, a college student living in the upstairs apartment of his garage, reveals that on a lark he and his friend started an online dating company, Perfect Match. Dante insists he shut it down until the kid offers to hook him up with a naughty librarian. Lena Young has worked two jobs since she was in high school. She's 30 and raises the daughter of her abusive older brother, a truck driver, as if she's her own. When her friend convinced her to sign up for Perfect Match, she couldn't get herself to go through it until Dante responds to her profile. Developing a major crush on her brother's best friend hadn't been difficult when Lena was a sheltered girl, but Dante hasn't been back to their house in 16 years. After she agrees to meet him without telling him who she is, she discovers he only invited her over to his house to get laid. She's mortified, but when an equally humiliated Dante comes to the truck stop diner she works on the weekends and apologizes, begging her to forgive him, she can't turn him away. Wanting to tell him to hit the road, she instead finds herself believing him, championing his determination to become a better man, convinced that with him she could have one thing in her life that brings her the kind of joy she's always dreamed of but has never considered possible.

Once Upon a Cliche Karen Wiesner, 2019-03-28 Detached and ignored for most of her life, Brayla Sullivan is the awkward, ugly duckling destined for spinsterhood who's never been kissed, never gone anywhere beyond the small town she was born and raised in. When she starts corresponding with a man from a Meet Exotic Singles website and he suggests they meet, she drops everything to fly to him in a last-ditch effort to find her happily ever after. The only son in a family of daughters, Shaun Levi Peaceful's Chief of Police has never looked the part of a dashing hero. Whenever he'd opened his mouth, his sisters had spoken for him or over him, and now any attempts at conversation with the opposite sex lead him to either a loss for words or making a mess that's ensured he'll stay a bachelor for life. Brayla has been nothing more than a buddy he's known all his life. But when a kiss between them on a particularly lonesome New Year's takes a turn for the worse, he sees a side to his old friend he never anticipated, and the consequences may just leave him without a friend or a prayer of convincing her they could share so much more. Brayla's poorly conceived plan to meet Mr. Right veers from point A to Z to F, and every sad where-in-between leaves her hopelessly lost and desperate for someone to rescue her. Everything she expects to happen falls through, while the unexpected may turn into everything she's ever dreamed of or all she's dreaded. On the rocky road to happily ever after, who knows what can happen.
