

	First Paragraph - Introduction Have you ever seen a dog? Have you ever seen a cat? Have you ever seen a hamster? Have you ever seen a guinea pig? Have you ever seen a rabbit? Have you ever seen a hamster? Have you ever seen a guinea pig? Have you ever seen a rabbit?	When it comes to pets, dogs are most certainly the best choice. They are loyal, affectionate and active companions. No other choice of pet can compete with a dog.	Don't instantly dismiss the pros and cons after a long day at school? Students instantly spend a great deal of their free time doing school work. It is not fun. Their teachers must spend extra time at home or before school to help them with their school work.
	Second Paragraph - Argument 1 Firstly, dogs are incredibly loyal companions. They see themselves as a part of the family and will always be there for you, no matter what happens.	Firstly, dogs are incredibly loyal companions. They see themselves as a part of the family and will always be there for you, no matter what happens.	Firstly, students need to know that school work is what they love to do. They should be pleased to spend time playing with friends, spending time with the family and just relaxing.
	Third Paragraph - Argument 2 Secondly, dogs are extremely affectionate animals. No other animal can show their love when you arrive home at the end of the day better than a dog can.	Secondly, dogs are extremely affectionate animals. No other animal can show their love when you arrive home at the end of the day better than a dog can.	Secondly, students should know the pros and cons of school work. They should be pleased to spend time playing with friends, spending time with the family and just relaxing.
	Fourth Paragraph - Argument 3 Thirdly, dogs are very active. This means that you can always keep fit and healthy, taking your dog for walks and playing games together.	Thirdly, dogs are very active. This means that you can always keep fit and healthy, taking your dog for walks and playing games together.	Thirdly, all families are different. Some students might need to help out after school and may generally not have time to do their homework.
	Fifth Paragraph - Conclusion For these reasons, it is clear that dogs make the best pets. Other animals might have some good qualities, but dogs are the most loyal, affectionate and active companions of them all.	For these reasons, it is clear that dogs make the best pets. Other animals might have some good qualities, but dogs are the most loyal, affectionate and active companions of them all.	In conclusion, students should not be doing homework. There are much better ways that students could be using this time after school, such as relaxing, learning new skills and helping their families.

Schmoker, 2001 What is the single most important event of the school year that affects school improvement How do you measure school improvement How can simple tools already at your fingertips work more effectively to improve student achievement in reading math and more The Results Fieldbook answers these questions and describes in abundant practical detail how five school systems overcame obstacles and achieved exceptional results for all their students. These schools focused on the proven core concepts that Mike Schmoker described in both editions of his first ASCD book Results: The Key to Continuous School Improvement. Supplementing the five case studies, brief vignettes written by practitioners show how core practices, teamwork, the use of achievement data, and planning for measurable goals made an immediate and profound difference in student learning at their respective schools. A close look at these school systems reveals the simplicity of school improvement efforts built around the still overlooked and most potent force in improvement: collective organized teacher intelligence. This book contains easily adapted processes and refinements that result from such teacher collaboration and all but guarantee measurable improvement. Tables, figures, and appendixes illustrate effective data collection processes, and at the conclusion, a three-part synthesis of the best of these systems provides practical steps toward implementing this radically more effective approach to school improvement, starting with preservice education.
