

Evaluative Essay: Violet

My friend was right. He had warned me to go early if I wanted to get a seat at a vantage point. I didn't believe him so I took my sweet time. By the time I finally arrived at the theater where "The Violet" was showing, there were only a few more seats left. "What was the purpose for my ticket?" I wondered almost aloud. "Wasn't it supposed to secure me a seat at the place of my choice?" But I knew the answer to my own question so I didn't even pursue the thought further. I managed to locate a seat just next to the middle aisle. Perfect! That would enable me to catch all the sideshows of "the violet" as well. The curtain raising comedian was just finishing and there was a thunderous laughter. I joined in although I hadn't caught the joke. Then the lights went off and the play began.

The settings and the story line of "The Violet" left good memories that might be cherished for a long time by those present. Seating in the theater beholding the scene made me feel like I was in another world. The stage had been impressively done. Different props had been setup to provide locales that were used as the nightclub, the hotel room as well as the bus. The backdrop of the stage was a beautiful painting of a sky that was dotted with clouds perhaps to show that there was some hope for the woman that was in dire need of a miracle.

The scene was reminiscent of what I had seen in plays that captured
