The Religious Development of the Negro in Virginia Joseph Brummell Earnest, 1914 The Routledge Handbook of Heritage and Creative Practice Nick Cass, Anna Powell, Sarina Wakefield, 2025-11-25. The Routledge Handbook of Heritage and Creative Practice explores the role of creativity as a tool for critical engagement with heritage. It provides a comprehensive study of ways in which heritage and creative practice intersect in research, in practice, and in a transnational context. This book introduces researchers, students, creative and heritage practitioners to contemporary practices from a breadth of perspectives. The transnational nature of its scope is key to the exploration of how heritage and creativity are ever evolving, conceived of differently in different contexts, and intersect in interesting ways through the work of creative practitioners. The volume argues that heritage itself is a creative practice, such that the creative work that occurs in these examples is not singular and distinct, rather, the symbiotic reciprocity between heritage and creativity is intersectional and embedded. The international array of authors and differing approaches from around the world, including case studies from Africa, Bahrain, Brazil, Caribbean, Columbia, China, Hong Kong, Iraq, Japan, Kuwait, Mexico, Oman, Qatar, United Kingdom, and United Arab Emirates, provide a global approach to the subject, while the diverse range of topics covered, including urban renewal, the coronavirus pandemic, memorial culture, public art, and colonial heritage, allows readers to gain insight into the richness of practices across a diversity of disciplines and contexts. This volume offers a significant and new contribution to heritage studies that will be of interest to scholars and students in heritage and museum studies, as well as those in the fields of art, architecture, anthropology, design, digital, and curatorial studies.
