Not Free, Not for All Cheryl Knott, 2017-02-14 An illuminating account of the development and demise of separate public libraries for African Americans in the South during the era of segregation The Journal of American Culture Winner of the Eliza Atkins Gleason Book Award and the Lillian Smith Book Award Americans tend to imagine their public libraries as time honored advocates of equitable access to information for all Through much of the twentieth century however many black Americans were denied access to public libraries or allowed admittance only to separate and smaller buildings and collections While scholars have examined and continue to uncover the history of school segregation there has been much less research published on the segregation of public libraries in the Jim Crow South In fact much of the writing on public library history has failed to note these racial exclusions In Not Free Not for All Cheryl Knott traces the establishment growth and eventual demise of separate public libraries for African Americans in the South disrupting the popular image of the American public library as historically welcoming readers from all walks of life Using institutional records contemporaneous newspaper and magazine articles and other primary sources together with scholarly work in the fields of print culture and civil rights history Knott reconstructs a complex story involving both animosity and cooperation among whites and blacks who valued what libraries had to offer African American library

Laska, 2010-05-22 Laska has written works alternately described as bold and memorable and with a hair raising comic vitality Given the complexity of his occasionally dark unabashedly political philosophical and underground writings he can be described as an Appalachian Fyodor Dostoyevsky Jeff Biggers Contributing Editor to The Bloomsbury Review Eschewing conventional poetic fashion Laskas engaging collection of over three decades of writings in the shadow of corporate domination is a sweeping poetic and prosaic lyrical and anti lyrical assemblage of thought provoking epigrams puns and philosophical dialogues together with voices and vignettes of a by passed America From the stripped mined hills and hollows of Appalachia to the banal debris of urban streets his work unfolds with respectful understatement the on going global desecration of inner and outer life With patient yet alarmed urgency he brings to the surface an ecological counter tradition whose contours trace back as far as the ancient Chinese Dao De Jing Csaba Polony Editor Left Curve NIGHT coal miners janitors salesmen across the rich diversities of the Appalachians But it could be anywhere anywhere there is history and the undying thirst to regain its story Night Day is a revolutionary documentary shaped by Laskas skill and free thinking awareness He has crafted this collection into three very distinct and thought provoking sections each lending a vivid picture created on a palette of carefully blended anti lyrics His style reaches from haiku to epigrammatic dialogue to philosophical conversations to a one act play The different forms make for a seamless flow and keeps the reader engaged in an almost voyeuristic indulgence The images are seen felt and experienced Quick dipping their heads they roll silvery drops down their backs then shimmy the dust from their wings His eye for the senses is clearly evident a profound craftsmanship on each page The main theme points to loss and the restitution of a culture a reinstatement of what has vanished what has been taken or rather an intense look back at a sober lingering The governments involvement is one of disdain but what strikes me is the search for meaning through philosophical traditions the hope for a return to nature and what is whole from a place of drought In many ways these poems are odes and pieces of the subjects soul This is a call an invitation to query I accept
