The Tomato in America Andrew F. Smith, 2001 From the Americas to Australasia from northern Europe to southern Africa the tomato tickles the world's taste buds Americans alone devour more than twelve million tons annually of this peculiar fruit variously considered poisonous curative and aphrodisiacal In this first concerted study of the tomato in America Andrew F. Smith separates myth from historical fact beginning with the Salem New Jersey man who in 1820 allegedly attracted spectators from hundreds of miles to watch him eat a tomato on the courthouse steps the legend says they expected to see him die a painful death Later hucksters such as Dr. John Cook Bennett and the Amazing Archibald Miles peddled the tomato's purported medicinal benefits The competition was so fierce that the Tomato Pill War broke out in 1838 The Tomato in America traces the early cultivation of the tomato its infiltration of American cooking practices the early manufacture of preserved tomatoes and ketchup soon hailed as the national condiment of the United States and the great tomato mania of the 1820s and 1830s The book also includes tomato recipes from the pre-Civil War period covering everything from sauces soups and main dishes to desserts and sweets Now available for the first time in paperback The Tomato in America provides a piquant and entertaining look at a versatile and storied figure in culinary history

A Penny Saved Is a Penny Earned Sarabella Solomon, 2012-05 Have you ever made a New Year's resolution only to give up on it at the first sign of failure In A Penny Saved is a Penny Earned Sarabella Solomon shares the insights she gained from journaling a New Year's resolution about saving money. When her first plan to save a little each payday failed due to unexpected circumstances, Bella didn't give up. She found not just one way around the obstacle but two ways. One approach led to becoming a comparative shopper; the other helped her to learn to live on less. Filled with comical graphics, Bella illustrates how she took her most dreaded chore, grocery shopping, and made it a task she looks forward to every payday. And the savings? Well, she throws that change into a jar and notes the savings on a spreadsheet. The amounts keep adding up, surpassing that of her original plan.

Sarabella Solomon grew up in rural Georgia. She has an MBA from Kennesaw State University and a career with the power company. Bella enjoys making New Year's Resolutions, journaling, researching, and writing. Her commitment to saving allows her creativity to shine like new money. When low on cash, Bella can whip up a last-minute gift using any one of her many talents: sewing, crocheting, or a folk art painted hat box made from a real wooden cheese box. Ms. Solomon is known by her Red Hat Sisters as Princess Bella; she is a member of the Red Top Mountain Girls of Acworth, Georgia, an official chapter of the Red Hat Society. Bella currently resides in Cartersville, Georgia.

Recipe Revival Editors of Southern Living Magazine, 2016-10-18. For over 50 years, Southern Living has been the authority on Southern food and cooking, inviting readers to share their beloved, often closely guarded recipes as a way to reflect the rich history and diversity of this unique region that is a bastion of great food. These recipes are like food memories passed down through generations of cooks that tell the story of the South. The trove of reader submissions included in the magazine over the past five decades have run the gamut from company-worthy pot roasts to rose geranium pound cake. Now in Recipe Revival, we revisit many of those time-tested recipes and offer you so much more. Over 200 recipes encompassing breakfast and brunch, cocktails, dinner, desserts, and more, both old and new. The notion of recipe revival is more than just turning up the flavor of an iconic dish by substituting a novel ingredient. A new generation of Southern cooks has become far more inventive with the way Southern ingredients are used today. With a wink to tradition, the rich coastal flavors of traditional Maryland crab cakes reappear as inspired crab-filled hush puppies. The cool, sweet and sour brightness of vintage tomato aspic translates into a colorful high-summer pairing of heirloom tomatoes with field pea nectarine salsa. Classic lemon bars achieve new and elegant heights as a delicious cheesecake with rustic shortbread crust. Recipe Revival is not only a nod to the past 50 years of sharing good food with friends and family but also a beautiful cookbook that promises years and years of good food to come.
